Executive Committee Post-Convention Meeting

Meeting Summary

The 60th Grand Council Convention opened with unparalleled enthusiasm and excitement after having been delayed nearly a year due to the impacts of COVID-19 pandemic. As Brothers were welcomed into General Session I by Grand Regent Christy Askew, the Golden Bow opening ceremony was performed by Grand Ritualist Joe Nardolillo. In addition to her opening remarks, Grand Regent Askew, Grand Vice Regent Jason Milton, and Executive Director Johnny Porter welcomed the Brotherhood and their guests to the 60th Grand Council Convention. Brothers were then introduced to the candidates for the 2022-2024 International Executive Committee who offered their respective candidate speeches imparting their visions and goals for the Fraternity over the next two years.

Although the Brothers were looking forward to a beautiful night under the stars for the opening reception, mother nature offered other plans and the reception was shifted into the beautiful Sonoran Sky Ballroom. Here, Brothers and their guests gathered to rekindle old friendships and welcomed those members who were also new to the GCC experience as this was the first opening reception in 3 years and many Collegiate Brothers were experiencing their first GCC.

On Monday morning, breakfast was served to both guest and family members of Brothers. Grand Regent Askew and Grand Vice Regent Milton also hosted a Province Supervisor Breakfast where insights and reflections of the past term were shared. Shortly after, Brothers were able to enjoy the 1st of 4 continuing education programs. Dr. Jordan Calloway, husband of Brother LaNae Calloway (Orlando Grad, Epsilon Zeta initiate), presented on "Continuing Education Program I: "Mental Health & Wellness for Pharmacists." General Session II followed with officer reports, standing committee reports and the Memorial Exercise was performed. Of note, Executive Director Johnny Porter during his report informed the members of the Convention that he would be retiring from his role. Since his initiation in 1971, Brother Porter has served the Fraternity for 50 years and his impact to our organization was captured with well a deserved standing ovation from the Grand Council following his remarks, a theme that would continue throughout the week.

The afternoon was highlighted by our keynote speaker, Brother W.T. Smith (St. Louis Grad, Gamma Pi initiate). Grand Vice Regent Milton introduced Brother Smith and his extensive background to both the Fraternity as well as the pharmacy profession. Brother Smith was gracious in his remarks to share his inspirational journey and offering wisdom and guidance around how he was able to "Rise to the Challenge" throughout the course of his life. After finishing his remarks, Grand Vice Regent Milton presented Brother Smith with a token of appreciation. Shortly after the keynote, the "Meet the Candidates" forum was held. This was the 2nd iteration of this session in which the candidates were all available for interviews during a scheduled time to allow Brothers and delegates to discuss the candidate's plans for the future of the Fraternity. The Kappa Psi Foundation also held their first Board meeting to round out the afternoon.

Following this event, General Session III began with highlights from International Committee Reports. One key highlight was from the philanthropy committee. Brothers Kelsey Johnson presented their report which highlighted the Fraternity’s support for our national philanthropy partner, Reach Out and Read. Despite the challenges that the pandemic presented, Brothers and their supporters raised over an additional $50,000 to make Kappa Psi a six-figure donation partner. Philanthropy Committee chairs Kelsey Johnson (Chi) and Ting Ting Fu (Epsilon Pi) were later recognized by Grand Regent Askew with W. Bruce Philip Certificates of Commendations during the awards reception. Wednesday morning began with an exciting CE topic on “Imposter Syndrome” hosted by Brother Amanda Winslow (Savannah Grad, Delta Omega initiate). General Session IV began shortly after with the focus of the session on the Legislative Hearing. After much discussion on the proposals involved the session was closed and our attention turned towards a very useful session offered by one of our sponsors, Premier Income Partners. The focus of their afternoon in-service was highlighting financial responsibility and the opportunities to become fiscally responsible early in our professional careers. Collegiate members then received financial reimbursements to wrap up the first part of the day. The afternoon was then filled with Province Caucuses being held across the resort.

The evening was filled with Chapter Sales where numerous Province and Chapters offered a variety of Kappa Psi merchandise available for purchase. Alongside this event, the Kappa Psi Foundation also hosted it's Poker Tournament organized by Brother James Wall (Pacific Grad, Gamma Nu initiate) who was supported by Joseph Wong (Pacific Grad, Gamma Nu initiate), Theresa Lin (Pomona Grad, Epsilon Gamma initiate), Stephanie Forsythe (Kansas City Grad, Beta Kappa initiate) who also was the final table dealer for the 4th GCC in a row, Sunny Bains (Pacific Grad, Gamma Nu), and Derrick Egi(Pacific Grad, Gamma Nu) for helping to administrate and organize the event. Winners and a summary of the events can be found below. Returning for a second consecutive GCC was the dessert reception or ice cream sundae social. This event was a tremendous success as sprinkles and ice cream dotted the ballroom tables.

The final day of events was kicked off with a CE session from Brother Patrick Hryshko (Arizona Grad, Gamma Upsilon initiate) who presented on “Longitudinal Anticoagulation Management in an Ambulatory Care Setting.” Following his excellent CE presentation, the Brothers gathered for General Session V. Of note, a very special series of moments were experienced by all as Executive Director Johnny Porter went through his last roll call, each of the delegates in attendance offered a simply “thank you” in their own ways. Provinces were on display in the morning as they shared their reports summarizing activities of their respective chapters over the last 3 years. The last of the legislative sessions were completed, followed by new business. Promptly afterwards, the resolutions report was presented by Brother Jessica Reno (Cleveland Grad, Zeta Epsilon initiate) of the Resolutions Committee.

Grand Vice-Regent Miller announced the location of the 61st Grand Council Convention to be held on July 24-28, 2024 at the Cleveland Renaissance Hotel located in Cleveland, OH. Brothers celebrated this and the events of the week by participating in the last social event of the evening hosted by the Southeast Province at Boondocks Tempe. This was the culmination of an exciting and blisteringly hot week in Phoenix, AZ where fortunately the lazy river, massive water slides and the myriad of pools were leveraged by many Brothers to stay cool. After returning from the challenges of the pandemic, Brothers were able to enjoy fellowship, networking, education and making memories of a lifetime. Brothers returned to their respective Chapter to share their experiences and prepare for the future ahead as they rise to the challenge.
