Beatitude Mass (for the Homeless)

Featuring Leberta Lorál, soprano and Bob Bogardus, baritone

Our March concerts will be very special. We will present the beautiful Beatitude Mass (for the Homeless) by San Francisco composer Henry Mollicone, a 40 minute contemporary work for chorus, chamber orchestra, and soprano and bass soloists. This moving piece incorporates words from the Latin Mass Ordinary juxtaposed with new texts drawn from interviews conducted with people living in homeless shelters. A portion of all proceeds will be donated to Dorothy's Place in Salinas and Gathering for Women in Monterey, two organizations that support people in need.

We see this as much more than a concert, it will be concert for compassion, a conversation among ourselves, our audience, our Camerata Futures students, and our community. This concert is a leap of faith in ourselves and you, our community. We are not charging for tickets for these concerts. Instead, we ask that you "pay what you can" at the door. We hope you will give more than a usual ticket price and help raise a significant amount to donate to those in need. Please join us in the belief that music has the power to heal and make a difference.

Soprano Leberta Lorál and Baritone Bob Bogardus are featured soloists. Other pieces on the program will bring inspiration and hope including Lord, make me an instrument by Roger Q. Holland II; Amazing Grace arr. Ed Lojeski; My shepherd will supply my need arr. Mack Wilberg; Hear me, Redeemer by Henry Mollicone and more.

Concerts are Friday, March 2 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Salinas at 7:30PM; Saturday, March 3 at First Presbyterian Church, Monterey at 7:30PM and Sunday, March 4 at First Presbyterian Church, Monterey at 2:30PM.
