The Camerata Singers

John Koza, Artistic Director & Conductor

After accompanying the Camerata Singers for over 30 years, Pauline Troia has announced her retirement. Join us as we sing some of her favorite repertoire, and thank her for sharing her artistry with us. Songs will include Long Time Ago and Simple Gifts by Aaron Copland, The Road Not Taken and The Lord is my Shepherd by Randall Thompson, A Gaelic Blessing by John Rutter and Music Down In My Soul by Moses Hogan and more! Pauline's good friend soprano Leberta Lorál will also join us in singing City Called Heaven. (Leberta was our soprano soloist for the Beatitude Mass in March.)

Concerts are Friday, May 11 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Salinas at 7:30pm ($20) and Saturday, May 12 at First Presbyterian Church, Monterey at 7:30pm ($25). Student tickets are always FREE. Tickets can be purchased online at www.Camerata-Singers.org or by phone 642.2701, or from our supporting merchants: Bookmark in Pacific Grove; Pilgrims' Way Books in Carmel and Zeph's 1-stop in Salinas.

Your Donations Raise $10,000 for the Homeless

On March 2-4, the Camerata Singers presented the inspiring and poignant "Beatitude Mass (for the Homeless)" by Henry Mollicone. No tickets were sold, instead attendees were asked to "pay what you can," and hopefully pay more than the price of a ticket, as proceeds were benefiting the homeless in our community. The concert raised $10,000 and was distributed equally between Dorothy's Place in Salinas and Gathering for Women in Monterey.

Attendance was amazing," says Camerata Singers Artistic Director and Conductor, John Koza.

"We knew this was a leap of faith and we are most grateful to our community for supporting the many who are homeless. This is the first time we have embarked on such a project and are moved by the compassion and kindness of all who attended. This clearly shows that music has the power to heal and to make a positive impact on our community's most vulnerable people."
