

Undine's Daughter

Reg Down
© Copyright 2015
Written 1982

All rights reserved. No part of this publication, in part or in whole may be reproduced, transmitted or utilized in any form, without the permission of the author, except for brief quotations in critical articles and reviews.

Tumble down the rocky mountain skipping down the dappled creek waves a-whirling
swish and swirling hubble-bubble, coil and leap!

Under boulder, dark and colder, over cliff and in the air! —
falling, falling,
undine's calling
spark-a-larkle dive down there!

Plunge in twilight
pearly laughlight
rolling lolling languid ball swelling upwards
weaving colors
dripping rainbows gold and all —
days a-dreaming
bubbles beaming
bursting in the misty air!
I the water,
undine's daughter,
tumbling down the rocky stair!