Step 1
Sign the card & provide your contact info.

Step 2
Make sure that the people you list are eligible to vote. They can be family, friends, co-workers, and others you can encourage to go vote.

If they are over 18 years old and a US citizen, they can vote.

If they have moved recently, changed their name, or if they want to change their political party they will need to re-register to vote.

If they aren’t registered yet, register them!

Use this link to register your community to vote: bit.ly/HWCregister

Step 3
First Text or Call
“Hi! I wanted to let you know that Nebraska’s primary elections are taking place on Tuesday, May 12 from 8am to 8pm.

The last day to register to vote is Monday, April 27.

I wanted to make sure that you are registered and planning to vote. Are you registered yet?”

Second Text or Call (Send by Friday, May 1 - Last day to request an early voting ballot)
“Hey, the election is coming up in a couple of weeks. Do you already have a plan to send on and vote?”

Third Text or Call (Send on Election Day Tuesday, May 12)
“Hey, have you voted yet? Call me or text me if you need any help ASAP!”

Your Vote is your Voice!
I, promise to list 10 people and call, text, or email them at least 3 times to make sure they vote; I also pledge to vote.

Once you've completed your list, take a picture and send it to: vote@heartlandworkerscenter.org.
