REFLECTIONS FROM ALUMNI

Earlier participants' comments on the strengths of the seminar noted: "tremendous depth of content", "The mix of American and Chinese lecturers", and "the diversity of speakers - we got to hear different sides to some things (Chinese/non-Chinese, Christian/non-Christian."

"I thought the lectures were outstanding, but the discussions around questions and answers gave us all a chance to learn more from the lecturer and from each other."

Online Worldviews Seminar Alumni

The historical aspect of the course was amazing, and I have a PhD in history so I can say that no course I've taken in history compares with the practical hands on approach of this course... Travels were amazing, sights, sounds, experiences were unlike any I've ever had in a taught course.
