JOB POSTING:
INCLUSIVE DESIGN FELLOWSHIP

Joel Sanders, Professor at Yale School of Architecture is seeking two Inclusive Design Fellows to assist with research and design for a publication and website that documents Stalled!, a design-research project dedicated to the creation of inclusive public restrooms that meet the needs of people of different ages, genders, religions and disabilities. (see more at http://joelsandersarchitect.com/research/stalled/).

Fellow 1: Research Fellow
He/she/they will work closely with Professor Sanders to conduct research and images searches for a chapter describing the historical, social, and political context of national debates about public restrooms

Skills & Requirements:
- Strong academic research and writing skills.
- Familiarity with image research and obtaining copyrights a plus.

Fellow 2: Design Fellow
The ideal candidate is a well-rounded designer skilled in design and representation, with a passion for applying these skills to timely social justice issues. He/she/they will work closely with Principal Joel Sanders to refine design prototypes and create diagrams, drawings, and renderings that will be posted on an open-source Stalled! website and exhibited at various venues in USA and Europe in the summer/fall 2018.

Skills & Requirements:
- Strong architectural design and representation skills.
- Familiarity in 2D and 3D software (AutoCAD, Adobe Suite, Rhinoceros) required.
- Familiarity with animation (After Effects), 360 rendering (VRay) and web development a plus.
- 1-3 years’ professional experience a plus.

Submit materials to employment@joelsandersarchitect.com according to below:
- Email Subject Line: Must be “IDG Fellow: Last Name, First Name” (insert your name, emails without this subject will not be considered)
- Cover Letter: Include in the email body or as an attachment. Let us know about you and your interest in this position
- CV/Resume & References
- Work Samples / Portfolio: Include work that is relevant to the position, both academic and professional, 15MB limit, NO website links (i.e. issu.com).
- No phone calls or unscheduled studio visits