When to Find your Favorite Produce
Produce at farmers’ markets is grown by farmers in this region. While there is a variety of options in every season, some fruits and vegetables (strawberries and asparagus in spring, peaches and corn in summer, and pears and sweet potatoes in fall) are only available during specific parts of the year. Because most fruits and vegetables need warm weather to grow, more produce is harvested in summer and fall.

Ask your farmer if you have questions about their produce!

Farmers’ Markets Accept Cash, Credit, EBT, WIC, and Senior Checks!

Did you know that most farmers’ markets accept cash, credit, EBT, WIC, and senior checks? Some farmers’ markets also accept SNAP/EBT. Be sure to check with each market to see what forms of payment are accepted by them as well.
