FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THREE ARCHES FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

CLEVELAND, October 3, 2019: Three Arches Foundation, a community-focused grant making foundation, announces the addition of Marianella Napolitano, RN and Pat Sullivan to its board of directors.

Napolitano is Chief of Health Care Programs at Circle Health Services and The Centers where she oversees all healthcare operations and program development to better coordinate care and address the social determinants of health. Prior to joining The Centers, Napolitano held leadership roles at Neighborhood Family Practice and most recently at United Healthcare where she led statewide initiatives around quality and healthcare coordination for the Medicaid and Dual-Eligible population. Residing in downtown Cleveland, she has been a volunteer board member with the American Cancer Society (ACS) since 2015 and currently serves as vice-chair, as well as co-chair on the National Health Equity Project.

Sullivan is managing director at Monticello Associates focused on client portfolio management and investment manager evaluation. As head of the firm’s Cleveland office, he represents an array of notable clients across Northeast Ohio. Prior to joining Monticello in 2003, he served as president of Parkwood Trust Company leading all aspects of investment management for the private bank and began his career at Jones Day as a corporate and restructuring lawyer. Sullivan has served as chairman of the board of trustees of the Sisters of Charity Foundation of Cleveland, trustee of the Mandel Foundation, and on the Business Advisory Council of the Farmer School of Business at Miami University. A Lakewood resident, Sullivan currently serves on the Investment Committee of St. Ignatius High School.
