The Curtis Fund annually grants $1.4 to $1.75 million in scholarships to low-income Vermonters.

- 80% of The Curtis Fund scholars are the first in their families to continue on to postsecondary education;
- 75% of recipients reported studying more because of their Curtis Fund scholarship;
- 70% of recipients reported moving into a middle-income bracket from a lower-income bracket.

The gift of education is not just an investment in one individual or one family; it strengthens our community, our country, our world, and our future.
Show young Vermonters that your business has their back.

Your generous sponsorship shows Curtis Fund Scholars that the community is committed to helping students achieve their dreams. To learn more contact Shana Trombley, shana@thecurtisfund.org or 802.324.4833.
