

TRAINING

As part of MTS's commitment to HSE, the following safety and environmental training is required for all MTS employees and is provided by MTS. New employees are trained when hired.

- Access to Medical Records
- Behavioral Based Safety Awareness
- Confined Spaces
- CPR/First Aid/BBP/AED
- Electrical Safety Awareness
- Fall Protection
- Hand and Power Tools
- Hazard Communication, Globally Harmonized
- Hazmat 126 General Awareness
- Incident Reporting Awareness
- Inflatable Buoyant Apparatus
- Job Safety Analysis
- Ladder Safety
- Lock Out / Tag Out
- Marine Debris
- MTS Incipient Fire
- MTS Safety Rules
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Rigging, API RP 2D 7th Edition
- Safe Gulf Orientation (OMSA) with SEMS II
- Safe Lifting Techniques
- Safe Personnel Transfers
- Substance Abuse Awareness
- Stop Work Authority and Ultimate Work Authority
- Water Survival (in classroom)

Additionally, the following training is required for all captains and mates and provided by MTS.

NPDES Vessel General Permit

Certain licensed personnel have the following additional training.

STCW, including:

- (1.) Basic & Advanced Fire Fighting
- (2.) Water Survival (in water)
- (3.) Survival Craft Proficiency

Certain personnel, licensed and unlicensed, have the following additional training.

Fire Team Training
Hydrogen Sulfide Training

The following training for Supervisors (including captains) is required and provided by MTS.

DOT 60/60 Supervisor Drug & Alcohol Awareness

Training records are maintained at the MTS office and are available to safety auditors and charterers upon request. MTS employees carry a variety of documents and identification cards referencing training.