

Shipping & Packing your inherited Asian stamps to me:

Follow these guidelines for shipping your collection to us:

Please include a completed submittal form with stamps you send us:

- Use a sturdy box. Small Priority Post boxes are available free from the post office for small shipments.
- Put rubber bands around your albums to keep them closed.
- Wrap albums and all stamps in plastic bags (trash bags work great) to protect them from getting wet.
- Be sure there is room in the box so the edges of albums don't touch any part of the box.
- Use padding (crumpled newspapers, peanuts, or bubble wrap) to surround the albums & fill in air spaces.
- Use strong plastic packing tape to wrap the box securely.
- Ship via US Postal Service or UPS to: Chinese Stamp Buyer, JSF Holdings, Inc, PO Box 1328, 3455 Trapper Lane, Wilson, WY 83014. Include your return address and telephone number.
- Send me stamps and email your tracking number to jon@chinesestampbuyer.com.
- If you received a preliminary offer price from me or you think you have a valuable collection, ship via certified, registered or insured mail. These require a signature upon receipt. Insure your shipment with coverage that exceeds my preliminary offer price or what you think your collection is worth.
- I want to pay you the best price possible for your collection so please help us keep the stamps in superb condition!

Upon receipt of your shipment, I will assess your stamps and make a firm offer (via email) to purchase your stamps within 7-10 days. This commitment from JSF Holdings, Inc. will require signed acceptance from you, and payment by me, before ownership of the stamps can be transferred to me.

If I believe your stamps are worthless, or worth less than the cost of shipping, I will email you and ask you if you want me to discard of the stamps for you. You will be responsible for the cost of this return shipping if I don't want to buy them, or if your stamps are almost worthless and you want them shipped back to you.

If you have any questions on the shipping and our process for buying stamps, email me at jon@chinesestampbuyer.com
