1. Who benefits from this action?

2. Who could be harmed by this action?

3. Whose voice and experience are being considered in the data we have about this issue?

4. Who is making the decision about this action? How is power working in this decision-making process?

5. Knowing these things, what do we do about this action?