

pic of the day
Partying in pajamas

Zendaya attends the Teen Choice Awards in Los Angeles yesterday. The 20-year-old singer/actress was nominated for choice comedy TV actress and choice breakout movie star for her starring role in 'Spider-Man: Homecoming'.

More pics:
newsday.com/celebs

GETTY IMAGES / FRAZER HARRISON

reality check

TAKING THE HELM. Following the elimination of Jessy Knuckles and Alisin Riot from the Baltimore tattoo shop Pinz and Needlez, Tommy Helm and Marvin Silva of Amityville's Empire State Studio were brought into season 9 of the Spike competition "Ink Master." And while Helm had competed on season 1, he wasn't sure he wanted to return.

"I had many mixed emotions," Helm tells Newsday. "Should I put myself out there for the world to critique my work? Am I jeopardizing my career by potentially failing? Or can I win and use that [$200,000 grand-prize] money to put a down payment on a new home for my wife and children?"

PREMIERES. Following a production hiatus that delayed the premiere a week while producers investigated and cleared two cast members of misconduct claims, season 4 of ABC's "Bachelor in Paradise" debuts tonight at 8 . . . Then at 10, Bravo's "The Real Housewives of Dallas" moseys into season 2 with newcomers D'Andra Simmons and Kameron Westcott . . .

and opposite that, VHI's new series "Baller Wives" introduces us to Miami athletes' WAGS (wives and girlfriends) — or at least those not already on E!'s "WAGS Miami," which bows season 2 this Sunday at 10 p.m.

Tomorrow night at 9 on A&E, "Leah Remini: Scientology and the Aftermath" returns for a second season of the former "King of Queens" star exposing the controversial religion . . . Wednesday at 10 p.m., Lifetime's new "Growing Up Supermodel" features such second-generation models as Arianna LeBrock (daughter of Kelly LeBrock), Cairo Peele (daughter of Beverly Peele), Atiana De La Hoya (daughter of Shanna Moakler) and others . . . Thursday night at 8, also on Lifetime, season 16 of "Project Runway" aims for inclusiveness with models sized 0 to 22. Among the designers are New Yorkers Aaron Myers and Sentell McDonald . . . Then at 9, Bravo's "Flipping Out" flips into a 10th season of house flipping.

RECAPS. "Bachelorette" Rachel Lindsay gave Bryan Abasolo the final rose and accepted his marriage proposal . . . French duo Les Twins edged out Minnesota's Eva Igo to win the inaugural season of "World of Dance" . . . "Face Off" eliminated Nelson Cooper and Brooklyn's Faina Rudshiteyn . . . David Hayes got bounced from "Boy Band" . . . "Big Brother" evicted Jessica Graf . . . Reba Billingsley is off "MasterChef" . . . "America's Got Talent" advanced seven acts . . . and "So You Think You Can Dance" was a performance-only show. — FRANK LOVECE

French dance duo Les Twins

RED BULL VIA GETTY IMAGES / HANDOUT

What's Inside The Newsday App?

Personalized Alerts

Get a more personalized user experience by choosing the types of alerts you want to receive, such as breaking news, sports, business, opinion, weather and traffic.

DIGITAL ACCESS IS INCLUDED

FOR ALL NEWSDAY SUBSCRIBERS AND OPTIMUM CUSTOMERS
NEWSDAY.COM/APPS

