

BREAK THROUGH THE BURDEN OF BUSINESS AS USUAL

A new paradigm is changing the way business is done,
and it can help you create your company's preferred future.

INTRODUCING THE "WHAT IF YOU COULD?" WORKSHOP

Learn how to find opportunities in business challenges and change specifically for your company, in one day or less.

Are you tired of hearing how difficult it is to grow revenue, attract and retain people, or launch a new idea? Or even worse, are you hearing it can't be done at all?

Then I have one question for you. What if you could?

In this hands-on workshop, you'll paint the picture of what that looks like. You'll learn about the latest paradigm successful business leaders are using to create businesses that thrive. You'll practice using a four-step framework for implementing that mindset, including how to:

- Evaluate how your organizational strengths fit into the realities of your marketplace.
- Expand your capacity to create real value for others and develop true innovation.
- Set stretch goals aligned to your company's values and ideals.
- Know if it's working.

Gain the knowledge and expert tools to move forward.

Schedule your complimentary call today to learn more about the workshop, the potential this new paradigm and framework holds for you and your team, and our pay-what-you-want pricing policy.

THE POSITIVE BUSINESS

WHAT'S ON YOUR BUSINESS WISH LIST?

- Building trust in your company
- Meeting the needs of changing client relationships and new expectations for success
- Responding to disruptive technologies or creating them
- Meeting the needs of a new workforce, offering relevant benefits and competing with the "gig" economy
- Providing systems and ways to cultivate new ideas and perspectives from employees, clients, or other stakeholders, such as vendors, suppliers, and others essential to the company's success.
- Becoming a market or industry leader
- Making a positive impact on society and the planet
- And so much more!

ABOUT ME, KELLY STEWART

Borrowing from my longtime leadership experience in Client Services, New Business Development and Marketing, I have a natural desire to bring out the best in a company. Today that means helping business leaders develop strategies that will help them incorporate the newest business paradigm -- doing well by doing good.

The Positive Business exists for people who've always believed there's a better way to do business.

I have the knowledge, systems, and ability to help you strategically improve your business across all aspects of the company and position it for long-term success. Whether that's improving business relationships, becoming a more socially-conscious business or reducing the company's impact on the environment, it's about knowing where and how to expand the company's positive core while earning profitable returns.

Discover the business benefits and other favorable outcomes it holds for your company, in the markets it serves.

"I have known Kelly for many years and jumped at the chance for her to speak at Trilogy's Alliance Partner meeting in September 2018. Her discussion about Doing Good in Business was both insightful and hopeful. My team & I were very impressed by her wealth of knowledge and passion for the subject. Kelly's commitment to help companies get to their next level demonstrates her earnestness in making a difference. Working with Kelly is a definite win for any organization."

Andrea Grubb, Chief Integrator
Officer at Trilogy Partners, LLC

Finding opportunity in business challenges and change requires looking through a new lens.
