Welina mai kākou,

As the host of the 9th biannual Pacific Region Indigenous Doctors Congress (PRIDoC) in Hilo, Hawai‘i, July 11-17, 2018, ‘Aahui o nā Kauka invites professional and community partners to join us in welcoming our local and international guests. You are invited to share the hospitality of Hawai‘i’s host culture, promote the innovations and collaborations of Hawai‘i’s medical and public health arenas, build the capacity of the workforce that serves the medical needs of Pacific Peoples, and highlight Indigenous wisdom around health and well-being.

Every two years, the Congress brings “together Indigenous doctors and students from around the Pacific to share resources and expertise.” It also serves as a mechanism to influence public health policies that affect Indigenous communities throughout the Pacific.

Established in Waikīkī in 2002, the Congress moves around the Pacific every two years, attracting participation from 200 to 300 medical practitioners and 20-40 medical students. In the past, about a third of participants were local physicians.

Who are PRIDoC members? PRIDoC has a membership made up of Indigenous medical associations from Aotearoa (New Zealand), Australia, Canada, United States, and Taiwan. Pacific-based physicians from other places are also welcomed.

What is the Kauka Hui? ‘Aahui o nā Kauka, also known as the Association of Native Hawaiian Physicians, is a not-for-profit corporation, or 501(c)(3), established in 1998. Our mission is to champion superior health care for Native Hawaiians and their families, which we do through leadership and advocacy, education, community service and collaboration, and the support of our members and haumana.

How can we partner? Your support may be in the form of a grant or event sponsorship. You have opportunities to sponsor keynote speakers or meals. You may want to join us in Hilo to display information about your organization or products throughout the conference.

As a PRIDoC 2018 Partner, your organization’s logos will be prominently featured in conference materials, online promotions, and conference apps. You will be recognized throughout event.

Please explore the attached opportunities. We look forward to partnering with you in the manner that best matches your organization’s mission and needs.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions that you may have. Dr. Dee-Ann Carpenter, presiding Chair of PRIDoC 2018, can be reached at: huikauka@gmail.com.
SPONSORSHIP LEVELS AND BENEFITS

The Pacific Region Indigenous Doctors Congress (PRIDoC) 2018 will convene July 12–17, 2018 at the University of Hawai‘i, Hilo Campus, on the Island of Hawai‘i. The event is hosted by ‘Ahahui ‘o nā Kauka, Association of Native Hawaiian Physicians, in partnership with the Te Ohu Rata o Aotearoa (TeORA), AIDA Australian Indigenous Doctors’ Association, Indigenous Physicians Association of Canada (IPAC), Medical Association for Indigenous People of Taiwan (MAIPT), and the Association of American Indian Physicians (AAIP). More than 250 physicians, medical students, and other health practitioners from throughout the Pacific are expected to gather in Hilo for the PRIDoC experience.

This year's event will feature health and medical presentations important to Indigenous well-being, cultural events, and cross-national networking opportunities. An international array of speakers will address advocacy, diversity in the workforce, medical education, climate change, innovations in clinical care, and Indigenous research and ethics.

We invite you to partner with us as a conference sponsor. The following sponsorship opportunities are characterized by some of the many rains of Hilo, our host lands.
