Indirect Cost Policy for Grants and Contracts

It is the policy of Nevada Humanities, Inc., as a 501 c 3 charitable organization, to ensure the advancement of its charitable mission. Therefore, Nevada Humanities’ income, regardless of its source, will not be used to support the F&A (facilities and administrative costs) or indirect operating costs of other institutions, organizations, or agencies. This policy applies to grants and contracts with Nevada Humanities as well as contracts with Nevada Humanities’ sub-grantees.

Nevada Humanities defines indirect costs as:

- Overhead expenses or ongoing operational costs incurred by an organization on behalf of the organization’s activities and projects, but that are not easily identified with any specific project.
- Administrative or other expenses which are not directly allocable to a particular activity or project.
- Expenses related to general operations of an organization that are shared among projects and/or functions.

Basic examples include, but are not limited to: general administrative support, shared equipment, depreciation, insurance, executive oversight, existing facilities costs, accounting, grants management, legal expenses, utilities, technology support, etc.
