FY2025 Project Grant Application Guidelines for Major Project Grants, Mini-Grants, and Planning Grants

Program Summary
The mission of Nevada Humanities is to connect and transform communities by sharing and amplifying the stories, ideas, experiences, and traditions of the diverse people of Nevada.

In support of its mission, Nevada Humanities creates and supports public programs statewide that articulate the Nevada experience and facilitate the exploration of issues that matter to Nevadans and their communities. These programs help perpetuate and disseminate local culture and heritage, improve quality of life, enhance education, and enrich life and thought. In addition, Nevada Humanities contributes to the economic health of Nevada by producing and promoting activities that stimulate heritage tourism and attract new business to the state, aid in fostering a creative and well-educated population, and support a diverse and important nonprofit cultural industry throughout the state. Nevada Humanities is one of 56 independent, nonprofit state and territorial humanities councils that partner with the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Nevada Humanities awards matching project grants in three categories: Major Project Grants, Mini-Grants, and Planning Grants. These grants are awarded to 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, education institutions, and government entities to support the implementation of public humanities projects throughout Nevada. All Nevada Humanities grant awards are subject to the availability of funds.

Applicant Eligibility
Nevada Humanities project grants are awarded only to organizations recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and government entities such as local and tribal governments, museums, libraries, educational institutions, and other nonprofit or governmental humanities organizations. Grant awards will not be made to individuals. Applicants and their projects must either be located within the geographic boundary of the State of Nevada or engage in activities that are about Nevada topics or directly serve Nevadans.

All applicants must provide an active and valid federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) and an active and current SAM Unique Entity ID number when submitting their applications. We no longer accept organization DUNS numbers with applications.

On April 4, 2022, the unique entity identifier used across the federal government changed from the DUNS Number to the Unique Entity ID which is generated by SAM.gov. As part of this transition, DUNS numbers have been removed from SAM.gov and are no longer in use.

The Unique Entity ID is a 12-character alphanumeric ID assigned to an entity by SAM.gov. Entity registration, searching, and data entry in SAM.gov now require use of the new Unique Entity ID. Existing registered entities can find their Unique Entity ID by following the steps here. New entities can get their Unique Entity ID at SAM.gov and, if required, complete an entity registration. For more information about this transition, visit SAM.gov or the Federal Service Desk, FSD.gov. You can search for help at FSD any time or request help from an FSD agent Monday – Friday 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. ET.

If your organization was already registered with SAM, you may have been assigned a SAM Unique Entity ID number already. Visit SAM to find your organization’s Unique Entity ID by following the steps here.

If your organization does not already have a SAM Unique Entity ID number, it may take a week or more to receive your number (demand has been high), so please anticipate this when submitting your application. Please allow plenty of time to process your request. There is no cost to register for the SAM federal program.

What Nevada Humanities Project Grants May Support
Nevada Humanities project grants (Major Project Grants, Mini-Grants, Planning Grants) support innovative humanities projects created primarily for Nevada audiences, or designed to enhance national or international understanding of Nevada issues, culture, and heritage. We especially encourage projects that will engage diverse audiences and participants.

Humanities projects are dynamic and may take many forms, including media programs and documentaries, exhibitions, forums and discussions, public dialogue and conversation, workshops, research projects with public components, publications, educational initiatives and programs, and digital productions. Whatever their form, such projects draw upon the humanities, address important issues, and enrich the state’s cultural life. They may explore topics as diverse as Nevada state and local history, traditional culture, civic engagement, oral history and community stories, jurisprudence, social justice, bridging cultures, Nevada’s landscape and built environment, sense of place, and contemporary issues of concern to Nevadans.

Humanities projects are often produced by humanities organizations. A humanities organization has a mission explicitly connected to the humanities along with a track record of specifically working in the humanities, as opposed to a group that occasionally tackles or delves into humanities-based themes or activities. Humanities organizations include, but are not limited to, historical societies and heritage groups, historic homes and sites, archives, oral history programs, folklife organizations, cultural centers, museums, nonprofit libraries, literary, organizations, nonprofit educational organizations, historic preservation groups, nonprofit media groups that report on culture, other cultural nonprofits with core missions or activities that center on developing and implementing public humanities programming.

Nevada Humanities also strongly encourages partnerships that use the humanities to include diverse groups of people and bridge different fields of inquiry such as the presence of the humanities in the sciences, agriculture, rural development, health, medicine, and in service of veterans and active military service members as well as underserved populations and underserved regions of Nevada. Nevada Humanities will consider applications for funding from organizations in other fields or endeavors that also have the humanities as central to the project proposed for funding.

What Nevada Humanities Project Grants Will Not Support

Nevada Humanities does not fund:

- Projects in which the humanities are not central.
- Performing arts projects without an educational or humanities component.
- Commercial, for-profit enterprises or activities.
- Events closed to the public (except K-12 schools or correctional facilities).
- An institution’s general operating costs.
- Costs associated with renovation, restoration, rehabilitation, or construction, including architectural preservation.
- Indirect costs and salary for permanent staff (although indirect costs and salary may be used to meet grant matching requirements).
- Promotion of a particular political, religious, or ideological point of view.
- Advocacy of a particular program of social or political action.
- Support of specific public policies or legislation.
- Lobbying activities, direct political action, or activities directed at influencing elected officials.
- Organizations without an active and current SAM Unique Entity ID number.
- Purchase of land or facilities, construction, renovation, or capital improvements.
- Museum or library acquisitions.
- Support for cash reserves, endowments, and fundraising activities.
- Professional development, scholarships, or awards.
- Academic courses for credit or student work undertaken as part of a degree program. Equipment, property, or other capital purchases.
- Meals or refreshments for audience members.
- Humanitarian programs and services.
- Project expenses paid out prior to the award of a grant and the start date of a project or Period of Performance.
- Overlapping project costs with any other pending or approved application(s) for federal funding.

If you include unallowable expenses as part of our grant request, Nevada Humanities may reject your application or reduce the amount of your grant request accordingly. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our office for guidance.

Award Frequency

All organizations are limited to two project grant awards from Nevada Humanities in one fiscal year (November 1 – October 31). These may consist of no more than one Nevada Humanities Major Project Grant and one Mini-Grant or Planning Grant.

What Are the Humanities?

At Nevada Humanities, our emphasis is on the public humanities, and we understand the humanities to be how people process, document, express, comprehend, and live the human experience, and that through the wide breadth of human learning, civic, social, and cultural activities, everyone participates in and has access to the humanities. While we value traditional academic humanities disciplines (such as linguistics, literature, history, jurisprudence, philosophy, archaeology, comparative religion and belief, ethics, the history, criticism and theory of the arts, etc.), we see the humanities as encompassing a wide range of activities and creative expressions that contribute to our individual and collective sense of being human. These include: social and cultural traditions and practices; civic and community engagement; expressions of identity; our understanding of history; our worldview and sense of place; the consideration of the meaning of life; the reasons for our thoughts and actions; the examination of the values and principles that inform our cultures, laws, and government; contextual and educational approaches to the creative process and the arts; and much more. Projects supported by Nevada Humanities project grants may utilize academic and/or public humanities tools and perspectives.

Humanities Scholars

The humanities must be central to any successful grant proposal and humanities scholars must actively participate in the planning and implementation of the project. Humanities scholars strengthen a project by providing specialized knowledge and skills that encourage and facilitate the exploration of ideas and community dialog. Humanities scholars often have either formal academic backgrounds and credentials grounded in humanities disciplines, or expertise developed through professional training, experience, or immersion in a particular cultural tradition. We recognize that knowledge may be acquired differently in various cultures and value such diversity of experience as consistent with our understanding of the humanities.

How to Apply for a Project Grant

To apply for a Nevada Humanities project grant, register through the Nevada Humanities online grant system here, where you can also edit an ongoing application, view and manage your awards, and submit your final report.

The online grant system will open to FY2024 Major Project Grant applications on July 15, 2023, and to Mini-Grant and Planning Grant applications on July 15, 2023. You must apply for a Nevada Humanities project grant using Nevada Humanities online grant system. No hand-delivered, faxed, or email applications will be accepted. Applications must be submitted online by the appropriate deadline.

Fully and carefully read these guidelines and the Nevada Humanities Project Grant Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) before starting and submitting your application. You are responsible for providing all of the required documents and information. Each organization will create an organizational account, then you may input the narrative answers for each question, complete and upload your project budget in the form provided, submit the required financial documents and support materials, and certify federal compliance. Additional supplemental materials, such as letters of support, are optional. Do not create multiple organizational accounts, use the organizational title as it appears on your 501(c)(3) documentation.

Documents and Information Required

- EIN Tax ID number
- SAM Unique Entity ID number (current and active)
- Date of 501(c)(3) nonprofit determination
- Federal IRS 501(c)(3) nonprofit determination letter
- Most recent audited financial statements - or, if your organization does not have an audit, your most recently filed Form 990 or 990-EZ or 990-N e-Postcard
- Narrative questions to be answered along with project details and an itemized budget to be provided

NSHE Institutions as Applicants for Nevada Humanities Funding

Nevada System of Higher Education (NSHE) institutions often have special needs or circumstances when applying for funding from Nevada Humanities. NSHE institutions include: College of Southern Nevada, Desert Research Institute, Great Basin College, Nevada State University, Truckee Meadows Community College, University of Nevada, Las Vegas, University of Nevada, Reno, and Western Nevada College.
NSHE institutions and their departments or programs are eligible for Nevada Humanities funding if they meet the general eligibility criteria for funding listed above. Each NSHE institution may submit multiple applications representing different departments or programs of the institution, however only one Major Project Grant request and one Mini-Grant or Planning Grant request may be awarded per department or program in each Nevada Humanities fiscal year. Each potential project director is required to coordinate their application with each NSHE institution’s appropriate office of sponsored projects.

When registering or searching for the NSHE entity applying for a Nevada Humanities grant in the Foundant Online Grant Management System used by Nevada Humanities, use the following format:

Board of Regents, Nevada System of Higher Education, Institution Name, Department Name

Sample: Board of Regents, Nevada System of Higher Education, University of Nevada, Reno, Core Humanities

In the Foundant grant management system, the primary contact should be the project director, which is the person responsible for implementing the project. If a form requires approval by an authorizing official in the institution’s office of sponsored projects, the project director is responsible for contacting Nevada Humanities staff member Bobbie Ann Howell at bahowell@nevadahumanities.org with the appropriate name and contact information of the authorizing official and the necessary form will be assigned to the correct contact with authority for completion.

Project directors are the first point of contact between Nevada Humanities staff and NSHE sponsored projects. Project directors should work directly with their institution’s office of sponsored projects to fulfill the requirements of the grant. This includes: completing the grant application; completing the grant agreement and cash request forms and uploading them into the Nevada Humanities Foundant Grant Management System; completing any required interim and final reports; and ensuring that all grant requirements are fulfilled. These requirements may include providing all relevant materials to fulfill routine desk audits when requested by Nevada Humanities.

Application Questions and Submission
Major Project Grant, Mini-Grant, and Planning Grant applications utilize the same application structure and you may access the Nevada Humanities online grant application portal here. Major Project Grant, Mini-Grant, and Planning Grant project proposals consists of seven parts:

I. Instructions and Guidelines
II. Applicant Organization
III. Project Information
IV. Project Narrative
V. Project Budget
VI. Supplemental Materials
VII. Certification

Submitting your grant application is an online process and the link to submit your application may be found on Nevada Humanities’ website located at nevadahumanities.org. These grant application guidelines outline the content required to submit your online grant proposal.

Staff Assistance
Nevada Humanities staff members are available to answer questions and to read and respond to draft applications from applicants. We strongly recommend that applicants take advantage of this opportunity.
To discuss a project or draft proposal, contact Nevada Humanities’ grants coordinator, Bobbie Ann Howell, in our Las Vegas office at 702-800-4670 or via email at bahowell@nevadahumanities.org.

I. Instructions and Guidelines
The Instructions and Guidelines section provides basic information about the application process and the project grant being applied for.

II. Application Information
The Applicant Information section requests basic information related to your project. Please enter the project title, a brief description of your project, and then list the title, dates, and locations of planned project events.

III. Applicant Organization
The Applicant Organization section provides basic information for your organization. Fully complete the required information. Each applicant organization is required to provide its Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN) and its active SAM Unique Entity ID (UEI) number on the application where requested.

Project Director
The project director is the individual responsible for the implementation of the project. The project director will be the liaison between the sponsoring organization and Nevada Humanities.

Use of a Fiscal Agent
Nevada Humanities very occasionally approves the use of a fiscal agent when awarding project or planning grants. Incorporated nonprofit organizations that have not received tax-exempt status through the Internal Revenue Service may apply using a Fiscal Agent with prior approval from Nevada Humanities. The Fiscal Agent is an incorporated, nonprofit, tax-exempt organization that is eligible to apply for Nevada Humanities grants. The organizational mission of the Fiscal Agent must align with the content of the project identified in this application.

The Fiscal Agent is the recipient of the grant award. The Fiscal Agent becomes the legal applicant of record, redistributes the grant funds to the organization coordinating the project, and is responsible for all the requirements of the specific grant category. This includes contracts, fiscal records, final reports, desk audits, and any other reporting required by Nevada Humanities. Any correspondence to Nevada Humanities regarding a Fiscal Agent-sponsored application or grant must be submitted either by the Fiscal Agent, or jointly by the Fiscal Agent and the organization coordinating the project, by email to grants@nevadahumanities.org. The use of a Fiscal Agent does not release the organization coordinating the project from responsible or accountable behavior. It is strongly recommended that the organization coordinating the project and the Fiscal Agent sign a Memorandum of Understanding or letter of agreement that clearly details the legal responsibilities and obligations of each party. Acting as a Fiscal Agent does not jeopardize the Fiscal Agent’s own grant applications or ability to apply for funding from Nevada Humanities.

If an organization intends to apply using a Fiscal Agent they must contact Nevada Humanities for approval prior to submitting a grant application. Applications submitted without this approval will not be considered for funding.

Authorizing Official
The authorizing official for nonprofit organizations is usually the executive director or board chair. This person has the authority to commit funds on behalf of the applicant organization and to certify that the organization is in compliance with federal laws regarding nondiscrimination and fair labor standards, and that its employees have not been declared ineligible to participate in federally funded programs. The authorizing agent for grants submitted by departments in the Nevada System of Higher Education is the appropriate person assigned within the institution’s office of sponsored projects.

Type of Grant
Select the type of grant you are applying for.

Fiscal Summary
Enter the grant amount requested, the organization’s cost share amount, and the total cost of the project (including grant request and cost share). The data in your fiscal summary should match the amounts recorded in the FY2024 Nevada Humanities Project Grant Application Budget Form.

Period of Performance
Your grant Period of Performance depends on the type of grant you are applying for. The Period of Performance for FY2025 Major Project Grants is November 1, 2024 – October 31, 2025.
The Period of Performance for Mini-Grants and Planning Grants begins with the date of the grant award and ends on the date of the completion of the last public event or public component of the project. Your project final report is due 90 days from the date of the last public event or public component of the project. For example, if your Mini-Grant or Planning Grant is awarded on January 1, 2025, and your event takes place on March 1, 2025, your grant Period of Performance is January 1, 2025 - March 1, 2025. Your final report would be due on or before May 30, 2025.

You must expend the allocated grant within the appropriate window of time determined by the Period of Performance. Expenses that extend beyond the grant Period of Performance may be prorated for the duration of the grant Period of Performance (for example, insurance expenses may be included, but prorated only for the period of time covered by the grant Period of Performance).

Allocation of Grant Funds

Grant funds should support costs directly related to the humanities content of the project. Nevada Humanities prefers to pay the honoraria or consulting fees for humanities scholars and expenses directly related to their participation, but also recognizes the importance of production, facilities, marketing, and evaluation, or other costs necessary for presenting a successful humanities project.

Sources of Project Income

List any sources of cash and in-kind support for your project. For example, list sources for your organization's own funds, grants, registration fees, ticket sales, and other sources of income. Please note if these sources are confirmed or anticipated.

Matching Funds & Cost Share

Nevada Humanities project grants are for the development and implementation of public humanities projects and require you to match the grant at least 1:1. The total match (also known as cost share) must be equal to, or greater than, the amount of the grant request. At least 15% of the grant request must be matched with cash. After you meet your 15% minimum cash match, you may match the remaining funds with a mixture of cash and in-kind cost share. We encourage you to include all of your appropriate project costs in your cash and in-kind match. Your cost share should include the total cost of your project even if it exceeds your 1:1 match requirement.

Cost share is the portion of project costs not paid by federal funds during the grant period of performance. In short, more than one entity shares in the costs of the project with the grantor supplying some of the project funds and the grantee supplying the remainder of the project funds. Cost share funds may consist of applicant cash or third party in-kind contributions. This might include expenses not paid for by your Nevada Humanities project grant, including salary and benefits, facilities and other operating costs, and additional program costs leveraged by your grant. Note that you may not use federal funds as cost share.

Desk Audit

Each year Nevada Humanities selects a handful of grants to undergo a routine Desk Audit. This process is part of our use of federal funds for subawards compliance process and required by our auditors. If your application for funding is successful and you receive notification in your Grant Agreement that your grant award was selected for a Desk Audit by Nevada Humanities, you must complete the Desk Audit Cover Sheet provided with your final report and include source documentation for grant and cost share expenditures with your final report where requested in the Foundant Desk Audit Form. This includes documentation for cash expenditures and cash and in-kind cost share. Examples include, but are not limited to, copies of invoices, checks, emails, and noted calculations for values (such as in-kind amounts for donated time and services). If your grant is selected for a Desk Audit, you will be asked to combine all backup documents into a single PDF and upload the required Desk Audit materials as a PDF into the Foundant Desk Audit Form where instructed.

Uploading the Budget Form into Your Application
After you complete the Budget Form, upload the Excel form into your Nevada Humanities grant application using our online grant portal. Do not convert the form into a PDF or any other format.

VI. Optional Supplemental Materials

Optional Supplemental Materials
Up to three letters of support from co-sponsoring organizations or project partners, or other pertinent information, such as work samples, may also be attached to the application – their submission is optional, but can be a very useful way to strengthen the quality of a proposal. Please do not attach lengthy resumes. Biographical information should be included in the narrative section of the proposal.

VII. Certification
To be eligible for funding from Nevada Humanities, which receives much of its grant funds from the National Endowment for the Humanities (a federal agency), the applicant must certify that the organization is in full compliance with federal legislation in the following matters:

- it does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age or handicap;
- it complies with federal fair labor standards;
- it is not delinquent on federal debt;
- neither it nor its principals have been suspended, debarred, or declared ineligible from participation in a transaction with a federal department or agency; and
- it will be compliant with federal and Nevada Humanities guidelines outlining the use of granted funds.

All funded projects are required to adhere to the Grant Award Agreement and requirements, which include compliance with federal guidelines and acknowledgement credits and logos for Nevada Humanities and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Review and Award Criteria
Nevada Humanities project grant applications will be processed by Nevada Humanities staff and evaluated by a committee of the Nevada Humanities Board of Trustees, which will make recommendations to the full Nevada Humanities Board of Trustees for approval. Applications will be evaluated in the context of the overall pool of requests, considering:

- Strength of the organization’s public facing humanities programming
- Strength of the proposed humanities project, it’s objectives, humanities content, and intended results
- The level of community need and benefit identified in the application
- Strength of service to underserved audiences and demographics
- The competency of the proposed communications and marketing strategies and their likelihood of success
- The competency of the proposed evaluation strategies
- The strength of key personnel, humanities scholars, and project partners involved in the project
The accuracy and completeness of the application and project budget

Project Grant recipients may request 90% of the awarded funds at the beginning of the project and the remaining 10% of the awarded funds at the end of the project along with the submission of the project’s final report. You may choose to have the funds deposited directly into your organizational bank account or to receive a check mailed via USPS. Reporting
Organizations will be required to sign a Grant Agreement upon notification of funding. Funds will not be disbursed until a signed Grant Agreement and a signed cash request form are returned to Nevada Humanities. For recipients of Major Project Grants, a final report confirming and describing the use of funds will be due on or before January 31, 2025. Final reports for Mini-Grants and Planning Grants will be due 90 days after the date of the project’s last public event.

Final reports for Major Project Grants, Mini-Grants, and Planning Grants will include:

I. Project Evaluation: description of what your project was and what it accomplished; description of the project’s humanities scholars and the nature of their involvement in the project; number of unique scholars involved in the project; primary and secondary audience served by the project; description of your communication strategies; description of your evaluation strategies; and your project’s impact.

II. Project Activities Data: complete list of all project activities including dates, titles, locations, URL links; number of “live” or in-person events; number of “non-live” events; number of attendees for “live” or in-person events; number of audience members for “non-live” events; number of events that took place in the four Nevada congressional districts; number of audience members in congressional districts in which events took place; project activity types; noting activities that align with NEH priorities; sharing your project’s promotional materials that demonstrates appropriate credit of Nevada Humanities and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

III. Final Project Budget: completion of the final project budget form; budget summary; completion of the cash request form.

IV. Nevada Humanities Desk Audit Report: for grant awards that were selected for a routine desk audit.

V. Certification: Certification of compliance with federal regulations governing the expenditure and use of federal funds.

We encourage you to write letters from your organization to Nevada’s U.S. representatives and U.S. senators thanking them for supporting public funding to Nevada Humanities and your organization. These letters help raise awareness about your work and the value of public funding to support your work, and we hear frequently from public officials and their staff members about how much they love hearing from their constituents. Please note that writing these letters is optional, and we are suggesting that you provide messages of gratitude. We are not suggesting that you lobby or advocate for a particular political stance, for any ideology, or in support of specific legislation.

Desk Audits

Successful Nevada Humanities grantees are routinely chosen for Desk Audits by Nevada Humanities. Organizations selected for Desk Audits will be notified of their selection when the grant is awarded. These organizations will be required to provide evidence and source documentation for grant and cost share expenditures for the entire project. If your application for funding is successful and you receive notification in your Grant Agreement that your grant award was selected for a Desk Audit by Nevada Humanities, you must complete the Desk Audit Cover Sheet provided with your final report and include source documentation for grant and cost share expenditures with your final report where requested in the Foundant Desk Audit section of your final report. This includes documentation for cash expenditures and cash and in-kind cost share. Examples include, but are not limited to, copies of paid invoices, checks, emails, and noted calculations for values (such as in-kind amounts for donated time and services). If your grant is selected for a Desk Audit, you will be asked to combine all backup documents into a single PDF. If you are not able to adequately document your expenditures and cost share with your desk audit materials you will be required to return the grant funds to Nevada Humanities.

Acknowledgment of Support
