Press Kit

Short Bio:

Ken Bautista has dedicated his entrepreneurial career gathering big dreamers and community builders. He's a partner at Makespace, a global development company that explores the intersection of brand, culture and physical space. He's leading a new retail venture called Factory, a modern retail campus. Previously, Ken co-founded Startup Edmonton, a community hub for entrepreneurs - building, advising and investing in local tech startups. Ken has been recognized in Avenue Magazine's inaugural "Top 40 Under 40" and Alberta Venture Magazine's "50 Most Influential People".
