public art, community art, and outsider art. Public Art is art that has been planned and executed with the intention of being displayed in a public place. Community Art is art which is based in a community setting, and has been created with community participation. Outsider Art is work by artists who are self-taught or who have little contact with the mainstream art world or art institutions.

This guide will lead you to some good examples, from the murals throughout town to engaging art at private residences. Information on additional artwork may be found on www.isdanet.org.

Address inquiries to ajoart@isdanet.org.

Besides the pieces listed in this guide, be sure to check out the artwork at the Plaza Gallery, the Salazar-Ajo Branch of the Pima County Public Library, and the restaurants, businesses and shops around town. Also, Ajo’s school on Well Rd has a year-round display of International Day of the Earth murals. AJO ART
