

Green Freight Asia

Labelling and Certification Programme

Confidentiality terms & conditions

The data disclosed to Green Freight Asia ('company submissions' as part of the GFA Labelling and Certification Programme application) will be used solely for assessing individual and group performance, employing the tools and processes agreed upon by GFA members. The data will not be used for other purposes without prior approval from the disclosing company.

GFA will:

- i. maintain the confidentiality of company submissions,
- ii. not disclose, publish or otherwise distribute the company submissions to any third party,
- iii. disclose company submissions only to its employees,
- iv. promptly notify disclosing company upon discovery of any unauthorised use or disclosure of company submissions and take reasonable steps to retrieve data and prevent further unauthorised actions or other breach of this agreement,
- v. only disclose company's GFA Labelling and Certification information with explicit consent from disclosing company and
- vi. strictly use company submissions for GFA purposes only. GFA may conduct further analysis on collected data to understand general trends in the Asia-Pacific region and share this research with the public. No individual GFA Member or their data and results should be individually identifiable from such aggregated information.

<https://www.greenfreightasia.org/> | info@greenfreightasia.org