CoD Confirmations

Name: Patrick Flanigan
Date: May 12th, 2017

CoD Nomination Process

The Committee on Discipline (CoD) confirmation process happens alongside the Honor Committee confirmation process so that USG reps, Honor Committee members, and CoD members conduct all interviews together. After all the interviews are conducted, the committee as a whole breaks into two groups, one to consider CoD appointments and the other to consider Honor Committee appointments. I had the privilege of serving as the USG rep on the CoD side and was joined in deliberations by CoD members Madeline Goertel ’17, Cason Crane ’17, Abby Van Soest ’18, and Caleb South ’19. We respectfully submit the following nominations.

Gabi Agus ’18

Gabi is up for reappointments and her reappointment was made separately from the previously mentioned selection process. The CoD members interviewing her elected to reappoint her and gave the following statement in support.

“The senior members of the Committee on Discipline are fully confident in our reappointment of Gabi Agus. Gabi has been a valuable member of the Committee for two years. She has worked hard during these two years while consistently demonstrating insight, reliability, and integrity. Gabi was asked to fill out another application to the Committee and attend a student-run reappointment interview as part of the standard procedure for Committee on Discipline. During this reappointment process, Gabi thoughtfully reflected on her experiences on the Committee. What stood out to us was her commitment to objectivity and fairness, which she described as “seeking the true narrative of what happened in a case.” She also described compassion and empathy as one of the most important values for work on the Committee. We are excited to have Gabi as a senior member of the Committee.”

Mary Claire Bartlett ’18

Mary Claire is nominated for her clear commitment to upholding community standards while still maintaining the highest levels of empathy and respect for students in question. In her interview she demonstrated a combination of compassion and respect for the rules that is necessary to be an effective member of the Committee on Discipline. She brings a unique perspective to the committee in that she is a varsity athlete, though she stressed her time management skills as a reason that she could be both an effective teammate on the volleyball court and an effective coworker with the CoD.

Allegra Martschenko ’20

Allegra was a clear choice from the outset as she demonstrated high levels of competence with the initial case study and then backed up her high levels of understanding with a near perfect individual interview. Allegra answered every question with poise and intellect that made her seem much older than her class year indicates. She was a clear choice for the committee and we are sure that her commitment to integrity and justice for students will make her an excellent member of the committee.

David Zuluaga ’20

David was unable to attend the first case study round, so he did not have the advantage of doing a case study in a group. Even alone he was excellent and he was able to clearly communicate his understanding of the nuances present in a difficult case study. He is a compassionate and empathetic person, and these traits come through even after a short encounter with David. We are pleased to support his nomination to the committee.

Jaylin Lugardo ’20

Jaylin spoke strongly of her passion for justice in the world and this passion for justice was especially evident from her individual interview. She emphasized the importance of balancing fairness with empathy, enforcement with understanding, and rigid rules with extremely different circumstances. She analyzed the case studies well and has a calmness that makes her someone we want sitting on the other side of a student in question, even on their worst day.

All of the nominees met and exceeded the high bar we set for nomination to the Committee on Discipline. On behalf of the CoD appointment committee I so nominate them and recommend them for appointment to the USG Senate.
Honor Committee Appointments

Project Leader: Carolyn Liziewski ’18 and Elizabeth Haile ‘19
Project Team Members: Honor Committee
Date: Friday, May 12, 2017

I. Honor Committee Reappointments

- Camille Moeckel
  - Year: 2020
  - Concentration: History of Science, pre-medical track
  - Why we reappointed Camille:
    - During her first semester on the Committee, Camille proved to be a dedicated investigator and thoughtful adjudicator.
    - Members of the selection committee believe Camille will be prepared to take on a mentorship role to train new investigators who join the Committee next fall.

- Wade O’Brien
  - Year: 2020
  - Concentration: Chemistry, pre-medical track
  - Why we reappointed Wade:
    - Like Camille, Wade impressed senior members of the Committee with his maturity in investigations and adjudications during his first semester on the Committee.

- Angela Hillsman
  - Year: 2018
  - Concentration: Computer Science (BSE)
  - Why we reappointed Angela:
    - Angela is a stellar member of the Committee, who will play an important role training a newly expanded Committee next year.
    - Angela has served on the Committee for two years, and her primary responsibility this year was training new investigators.

- Elan Sykes
  - Year: 2018
  - Concentration: Woodrow Wilson School
  - Why we reappointed Elan:
    - Elan completed a full year of service, during which he displayed maturity and responsibility in investigations and adjudications.
    - Despite having less Committee experience than the other 2018 members, Elan quickly emerged as a member who approaches investigations and adjudications in an intellectually sophisticated way.
II. Honor Committee Appointments

- Wesley Johnson
  - Year: 2019
  - Concentration: History
  - Why we appointed Wesley:
    - During his case study interviews, Wesley displayed maturity, excellent problem solving skills, and empathy.
    - Wesley is a member of the Mental Health Initiative; during his interviews, he expressed hope that he can contribute empathy and humanity to a challenging process.

- Elise Wong
  - Year: 2019
  - Concentration: Woodrow Wilson School
  - Why we appointed Elise:
    - Elise is an impressive member of the University community, who expressed respect for community values and a strong desire to contribute to the community by upholding the values.
    - Elise displayed strong problem solving skills during her case study interview, and mature thinking about the role of penalty within the context of the broader community.

- Applicant breakdown
  - In total, seventeen students applied for positions on the Honor Committee and Committee on Discipline. Of these students, two applied only to the Honor Committee, four applied to both Committees and preferred the Honor Committee, and two applied to both Committees and preferred the Committee on Discipline.
  - Eight women and nine men applied for service on the Committees.

- Updates to the application and interview process
  - The application was distributed freshman seminar professors, writing seminar professors, FSI director Nimisha Barton, and varsity sports coaches.
  - Additionally, Dean Victoria Jueds distributed the application to residential college staff who engaged in outreach within the colleges.
  - Finally, the Honor Committee compiled a list of student organizations to whom it hoped to distribute applications via listservs. The Committee successfully distributed the application to many listserves; however, the process needs to be formalized during the Fall semester to ensure maximally effective outreach.

- Future improvements to the application and interview process
  - Recruiting a diverse pool of applicants continues to be a high priority. We intend to mirror our recruitment efforts from this cycle for our fall application cycle.
    - Additionally, we intend to contact specific professors in underrepresented academic departments to recruit applicants.
  - Fall applications will be solicited in early October.
ARTICLE I. PURPOSE

The USG-GSG University Student Life Committee (hereinafter the USLC) shall serve three roles:

1. Meet monthly with the Faculty University Student Life Committee (hereinafter the Faculty USLC).
2. Have purview as core committees of the Undergraduate Student Government (hereinafter the USG) and the Graduate Student Government (hereinafter the GSG) to address all issues of campus life, specifically:
   a. For undergraduate students, those issues not addressed directly by the Academics, Campus and Community Affairs, or Social Committees, and
   b. For graduate students, those issues not addressed directly by the Academic Affairs, Facilities, and Health & Life Committees.
3. Keep a pulse for the USG and GSG on other campus bodies that address undergraduate and graduate student life.

SECTION A. ROLE 1: FACULTY UNIVERSITY STUDENT LIFE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Rights, Rules, and Responsibilities stipulates that student input should play an essential role in the formulation of University policies that affect student interests. The USLC should ensure that student input is always considered in the formulation of such policies by soliciting student input, and bringing up issues of concern to both undergraduate and graduate students at Faculty USLC meetings.
In addition to serving as student voices at these meetings, the USLC shall work outside the meetings to ensure that recommendations made at the Faculty USLC meetings are carried through. The Charter of the Faculty USLC is printed in the appendix of this charter.

SECTION B. ROLE 2: USG-GSG CORE COMMITTEE

The USLC shall have purview over all issues of campus life not already addressed directly by the other USG and GSG core committees. This includes the following:

1. Identifying University-wide issues that impact the general well-being of students and the social and learning environments within which students reside.
2. Considering and proposing policies that address issues that affect student life. In that vein, the USLC may propose resolutions to address campus life issues, which are subject to the review of the USG Senate and the GSG Assembly.
3. Pursuing joint pet projects as needed to affect campus life positively.
4. Forming sub-committees as needed to address issues efficiently.

When appropriate, the USLC should coordinate efforts with USG Senate and GSG Assembly members.

SECTION C. ROLE 3: CAMPUS LIFE LIAISONS

The USLC has a pivotal role in keeping a pulse on issues pertaining to campus life for both undergraduates and graduates. In this vein, the USLC should send liaisons to serve on bodies across the University that address relevant campus life issues.

The USLC should always have a liaison for the following core areas of campus life: Athletics and Campus Recreation, Office of the Dean of Undergraduate Students’ Issues, Dining, Eating Clubs, International Students’ Issues, Graduate School Issues, LGBT Students’ Issues, Minority Students’ Issues, Public Safety, Residence, Student Health, Transportation, and Women’s Issues. In addition, the USLC should send liaisons to bodies across campus that could benefit from a temporary connection with the USG and GSG, at the discretion of the USLC Chairs.

Furthermore, the USLC shall reach out to the Residential Colleges, Eating Clubs, and graduate housing groups as needed to evaluate policies and practices so as to improve undergraduate and graduate student quality-of-life.
ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION A. MEMBERSHIP DEFINED

The USLC shall consist of no more than eighteen seventeen members, and no fewer than fourteen thirteen. In addition to the two elected chairs, the committee shall consist of at most five graduate students, and at most eleven ten undergraduate students, all of whom shall be appointed by the chairs to serve on the committee. Twelve Eleven of the members will serve as USLC Liaisons, while the remaining members will be selected to serve as members at-large.

For the 2012-2013 academic year, to accommodate a smooth transition to the USLC’s new structure, the composition and membership of the USLC shall be determined at the discretion of the Chairs.

SECTION B. ELECTION OF USLC CHAIRS

In accordance with USG elections regulations, the USG USLC Chair shall be elected each year in the December elections. The term of the USG USLC Chair shall last from the beginning of the following spring semester until the conclusion of the next fall semester.

In accordance with GSG elections regulations, the GSG USLC Chair shall be elected each year in the March elections. The term of the GSG USLC Chair shall last from the beginning of Spring Break in the election year until the beginning of the following Spring Break.

For the 2012-2013 term, to accommodate a smooth transition to the USLC’s new structure, the GSG USLC Chair shall be appointed jointly by the GSG Executive Committee and the USG USLC Chair.

SECTION C. SELECTION OF MEMBERS

The undergraduate delegation to the USLC shall be selected jointly by the USLC Chairs and the USG President at the beginning of each Fall Semester. The Vice President for Campus Life must approve all appointments. Undergraduate membership selection must be completed and approved by the USG Senate prior to the third meeting of the fall term.

The graduate delegation to the USLC shall be selected jointly by the USLC Chairs and the GSG President at the beginning of each Fall Semester. The Vice President for Campus Life must approve all appointments. Graduate membership selection must be completed and approved by the GSG Assembly prior to the second meeting of the fall term. Hereinafter, we will refer to the undergraduate and graduate delegations to the USLC as the USLC members.

The USLC may establish partnerships with other campus groups for selecting members to ensure the selection of influential members and liaisons. However, USLC Chairs are not bound by partnerships made by former USLC Chairs.

The membership shall be chosen in the beginning of the fall semester, after advertising the positions availability to the entire University community. The term of USLC members shall last from the beginning of the fall semester until the conclusion of that year's spring semester. The elections of the USLC Chairs and the selection of members do not overlap intentionally in order to ensure a continuity of the committee's efforts.

ARTICLE III. DUTIES

SECTION A. DUTIES OF THE CHAIRS

1. The USG USLC Chair shall be responsible for representing the USLC at all USG Senate meetings. In addition, the USG USLC Chair shall be a voting member of the USG Senate and a member of the USG Executive Committee.

2. The GSG USLC Chair shall be responsible for representing the ULC at all GSG Senate meetings. In addition, the GSG USLC Chair shall be a voting member of the GSG Assembly and a member of the GSG Executive Committee.

3. USLC Members shall bring pertinent issues to the USG Senate and GSG Assembly as needed to keep the USG and GSG informed on the status of key issues pertaining to campus life.

4. The Undergraduate and Graduate USLC Chairs shall plan the agenda of all student meetings and work with the Vice President of Campus Life to design constructive agendas for the Faculty serving on the USLC.

2. Individual members will be assigned by the Chairs as either as formal USLC Liaisons or members at-large.
3. Each USLC member must work continuously on at least one pet project to further the mission of the USLC. Each member's pet project does not have to stem from his/her liaison committees; moreover, pet projects may and often should involve more than one member.

4. Although additional liaisons may be added at the discretion of the USLC Chairs, each USLC must have the following liaisons:
   a. The Campus Recreation Liaison shall work with the Director of Campus Recreation to serve on any committees relevant to Club Athletics, Campus Recreation, and Dillon Gym.
   b. The Dining Liaison shall work with Dining Services, and as possible shall serve on any overarching student dining committee run by the Director of Dining Services.
   c. The Eating Club Liaison shall liaise with the Interclub Council (ICC), individual Eating Clubs, and USG, and shall serve as a voting member of the Subcommittee on Eating Club Relations.    k. The Varsity Athletics Liaison shall serve on at least one athletics committee pertaining to Varsity Athletics.
   l. The Women's Issues liaison will also serve as a liaison to the Women's Center. She will lead bi-semesterly meetings (or more as they are needed) of representatives from groups focused on women's issues, in conjunction with the Women's Center. These meetings will be to organize a calendar of events pertaining to women's issues and to discuss pertinent women's issues on campus.

5. Members at-large must be either assigned to liaise with a group not covered by the above twelve liaisons, or must actively seek out projects pertaining directly to University life.
SECTION C. CENSURE OF MEMBERS

Any USLC member may be brought up for censure with two unexcused absences from two regular USLC meetings in any given semester. Censure consists of consultation of the three Co-Chairs (that is, the Vice President for Campus Life, the USG USLC Chair, and the GSG USLC Chair) of the Faculty USLC to decide whether that member may continue to serve on the USLC. All three Co-Chairs must be in agreement to remove that member from office. Censure is not subject to approval by the USG Senate or the GSG Assembly.

ARTICLE IV. SUBCOMMITTEES

SECTION A. ESTABLISHMENT

Subcommittees shall be established by the USG-GSG Core Committee as necessary under Article I, Section B (4), or by Amendment to this Charter under Article VI.

SECTION B. PERMANENT SUBCOMMITTEES

The following subcommittees shall be permanently convened under the USLC:

1. Subcommittee on Eating Club Relations
   a. MEMBERSHIP.— The USLC Subcommittee on Eating Club Relations shall consist of:

      ii. Three (3) members of the USG Senate,
      iii. The President or designated representative of the Interclub Council (ICC), iv. The USLC Eating Club Liaison, and
      v. Three (3) members-at-large, which may be any undergraduate student.

      1. For the 2017-2018 academic year, to accommodate a smooth transition to the Subcommittee on Eating Club Relations’ inauguration, the members-at-large shall be appointed by the USG USLC Chair, subject to Senate confirmation.
   b. REPRESENTATION.— Additional members-at-large shall be invited to join by the Chair of the Subcommittee as necessary to maintain minimum ten percent representation by students not affiliated with any eating club, subject to Senate confirmation.

c. CHAIR.— The USLC Eating Club Liaison shall serve as chair of the subcommittee.
   i. The Chair shall set the agenda, date, time, and place for Subcommittee meetings.
   ii. The Chair shall oversee the membership selection process for the Subcommittee.

d. MEETINGS.— The Subcommittee shall meet:
   i. Four times each semester, or
   ii. As necessary, at the discretion of the Chair.

e. PURPOSE.— The purpose of the Subcommittee shall be:

      1. The goals of this collaboration include, but are not limited to, the promotion of eating club transparency, inclusivity, and diversity.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

The USG-GSG University Student Life Committee should meet at least once per week apart from Faculty USLC meetings, at the discretion of the USG and GSG Chairs (in consultation with the members of the committee).

The focus of these meetings should be to accomplish the latter two of the USLC’s three purposes: to collect feedback from liaisons across campus and to address all issues pertaining to campus life. Meetings should serve as an open forum in which members should address issues facing liaisons, propose agendas for Faculty USLC meetings, find common interests between the USG and GSG for issues pertaining to student life, and provide feedback on USLC projects.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENT

The USLC Charter may be amended or altered by a majority two-thirds vote of the USG Senate, with the assent of the GSG Assembly.
APPENDIX. FROM RIGHTS, RULES, AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The University Student Life Committee. The University Student Life Committee consists of six members of the Faculty, including at least two who are non-tenured and one Residential College Master. The following also serve on the Committee: the Vice President for Campus Life as chair, the Dean of the College, the Dean of the Graduate School, the Director of Athletics, the Executive Director of University Health Services and the Dean of Undergraduate Students.

The University Student Life Committee is concerned with fostering relationships among academic, residential and social experiences of undergraduates and graduate students and more generally with the tone and character of University student life. In conjunction with the Council of Masters, which oversees such matters in the residential colleges, the Committee reviews policies affecting residential and extracurricular life for all undergraduate and graduate students.

The Committee may advise the Dean of Undergraduate Students, the Dean of the Graduate School, the Dean of the College, the Vice President for Campus Life and the President concerning matters under its purview and may, periodically, report and make recommendations to the Faculty.

Normally, the Committee shall include in its deliberations, and in the work of any subcommittees which may develop, student members of the University Student Life Committee of the Undergraduate and Graduate Student Governments.
The Midwestern Society
- The Midwestern Society looks to be a new cultural group on campus. It is a platform to connect all those people from, interested in or homesick for the Midwest. The activities that the group looks to host are mostly food oriented (i.e., cookouts), or centered around watching and discussing local sports games.

Motown Sound
- This is a group that looks to offer opportunities to Princeton’s undergraduate population to learn about and perform Motown music with others who also appreciate the genre. The group looks to perform at least twice a year for the undergraduate student body, either in the Frist Performance Theatre, Wilson Blackbox, or other performing spaces. It further plans to coordinate with other musical and performance groups on campus for different events (e.g., BSU Black History Month events, Carl A. Field’s Center initiatives, arch sings, and collaborations with other groups).

Empower
- Princeton Empower is a group that hopes to connect people interested in learning how to improve the way they manage their personal finances. It is a group that, unlike other finance groups at Princeton, aims to teach people how to better manage their stocks, do their taxes, etc. – basically, become more financially literate people. It is a group that looks to help enrich people’s knowledge of managing day-to-day finances rather than gear them up for jobs in corporate finance. Each week, the exec board plans a ‘lesson,’ either a lecture of classroom-style discussion, for people to sit-in on and participate in.

Ping Pong League
- This student group will be a platform for Princeton students interested in playing casual ping pong matches and competing for fun. It is a group that emphasizes casual ping pong in a structured setup without requiring major time commitment. This group has existed and organized tournaments since the fall of 2015, and plans to continue organizing semester-long competitions that power-match students on a schedule that works for them.

Princeton Ethiopian and Eritrean Students Association (PEESA)
- PEESA will be a new cultural group that plans to connect people of Ethiopian or Eritrean descent, or those interested in Ethiopian and Eritrean culture. Planned activities include celebrating the cultural holidays (e.g., Ethiopian/Eritrean new year), film showings, discussions about Ethiopian and Eritrean politics, cultural dance lessons among other things. The group further plans to host networking events for people of Ethiopian/Eritrean descent at Princeton with those in New York. The group existed for a while before coming to SGRC, and has already hosts a multitude of events (vigils, dinner discussions, etc.).
