Princeton Perspective Project Appointments

Committee Chair: Mary Heath Manning

Application and Selection Process:
• The Princeton Perspective Project was interested in striking a balance between returning and new members. For this reason, each of our three teams (Special Events, Communications, and External Relations) will have one returning member and two new members. Each returning member who wished to remain on the team went through a less rigid re-application process that primarily consisted of a conversation with PPP’s chair.

Total Applications Received: 9 applications, 8 interviewed

Nominations:

Returning Members:

Nusrat Ahmed (2017, Major)
• Other Activities: Secretary of the 2017 Class Council, member of the cappella groups Umqombothi and Off the Record, volunteer with LEAP
• Nusrat has been a wonderful member of PPP’s Student Advisory Board. She has a lot of experience that has been so helpful, she is incredibly creative, and she always has a positive attitude.

Isabella Lloyd-Damnjanovic (2017, Sociology)
• Other Activities: VP of Media and Communications for the Princeton Women’s Mentorship Program, Fellow at the Writing Center, participant in Project Solidarity
• Isabella has been one of the most dedicated members of PPP this year, consistently checking in to see what she can do to help and always working efficiently to get PPP on track.

Deana Hamlin (2017, Woodrow Wilson)
• Other Activities: Co-president of the Pace Council for Civic Values (PCCV), Community Action leader, president of the a cappella group Off the Record, member of Princeton Faith and Action (PFA), member of the Community Service Interclub Council, Dormitory Assistant for 2015-2016 academic year
• Deana has also been one of the most committed members of PPP this year. She is incredibly efficient and organized and this often allows her the time to ask others if she can assist them in completing their designated tasks.
New Members:

Emily Chen (2018, Woodrow Wilson)
- Other Activities: Member Princeton Model UN Team, Editor for Princeton Journal of East Asian Studies, Secretary of Asian American Students' Association
- Emily is very enthusiastic about PPP. She has considerable experience with event planning on and off campus and she will make a wonderful member of the Special Events team for PPP.

Lauren Berger (2017, Neuroscience)
- Other Activities: Social Chair for Women’s Club Soccer, member of the Campaigns Team for GlobeMed, member of Circle of Women
- Lauren has a lot of energy that will be very beneficial for PPP’s Special Events team. She has experience on campus in terms of coordinating and marketing for events.

Nancy Wu (2018, Economics)
- Other Activities: Co-Manager of the Annual Princeton Dodgeball Tournament, Co-curricular Ballet Photographer, writer for the Daily Princetonian
- Nancy will be a member of PPP’s Communications team, calling on her diverse experiences on campus to creatively market events and communicate with the student body.

Tobi Jegede (2018, Electrical Engineering)
- Other Activities: Member of Off the Record a cappella group, member of Forbes College Council, volunteer for GetSET
- Tobi is extremely organized and hard working. She will make a very productive and creative member of the Communications team.

Matt Blazejewski (2017, East Asian Studies)
- Other Activities: Student Supervisor at Firestone Library, Publicity Director on Executive Board of Theatre Intime, performer in Me Too Monologues, La Cage aux Folles, member of Sustained Dialogue, member of TWLOHA
- Matt is very passionate about PPP’s mission and has an incredibly evolved understanding of the project. For these reasons, he will make an excellent member of PPP’s External Relations team.

Melody (2016, Psychology)
- Other Activities: Dormitory Assistant (Wright Hall), Worship Team member for Princeton Faith and Action, Projects Team member for Manna Christian Fellowship, member of Princeton University Gospel Ensemble
- Melody is a very compassionate member of Princeton’s student body and she has experience working with peers and administrators on sensitive issues. She will make a wonderful member of the External Relations team for PPP.
Campus and Community Affairs Committee Appointments

Committee Chair: Andrew Sun

Application and Selection Process:
• Out of 4 applicants, took 3 new members to have a total number of 11 CCA members.
• There were very few applicants, making the selection very easy and not needing an interview component
• I wanted to find students from different backgrounds and perspectives

Total Applications Received: 4

Nominations (3):

New Members:

Zach Feig (2018, Molecular Biology)
• Princeton Taekwondo
• Very invested in the cause of sustainability and partnerships, Zach would be a great person to have on the Service team

Angela Liang (2017, Molecular Biology)
• Community House, Princeton Traveler, CSA
• Efficient, well versed in coordinating events, and passionate about the performing arts, Angela would make a wonderful addition to the Performing Arts team

Jessica Li (2018, Economics)
• Debate, Theatre
• Motivated and innovative, Jessica would be great for negotiating deals with vendors and make a wonderful asset to the Tiger Deals/Discount team
1. One-on-Ones Saturday and Sunday
   • Thanks for all your input and feedback!

2. USG Bonding Dinner
   • Thanks to everyone who joined!

3. Administrative Meetings
   - President Eisgruber
     o Left President Eisgruber with entire projects packet
     o Asked for and received feedback on structural/organizational changes to Senate in the fall semester, especially administration’s view on documentation, referendum, resolutions ▪ Encouraged to pursue direct discussions with administrators, engage in more conversations, and to weight costs and benefits of each project (recognize opportunity costs)
     o Winter Break Referendum Next Steps Discussion
     o Urged transparency in Strategic Planning Process, both in students approached and process
   - Dean Valerie Smith
     o Academics Project Ideas Run-Down (see Ramie’s Academics Committee Update for highlights)
     o Winter Break Referendum Next Steps Discussion
     o Urged transparency in Strategic Planning Process’s General Education Task Force, both in students approached and process
   - Executive Vice President Treby Williams
     o Left her with entire projects packet
     o Urged transparency in Strategic Planning Process
     o Discussed campus planning involvement, many USLC and USG projects that pertain to her work
   - Amanda Zeltner
     o Met with Aleks and Kathy
     o Office Supplies and Redesign
       ▪ Furniture, coffee machine
   - VPCL Search Interview
     o Was interviewed for student feedback in VPCL Search to replace VP Cynthia Cherrey
   - Jesse Fleck, Chair of Honor Committee
     o Talked about potential changes to Honor Committee Constitution
     o Talked about appointment process to replace departing member
     - Bubble tea with two students who replied to my weekly email first!

  - New survey in the works through USLC
- Food ideas list to be sent out this week to Smitha Haneef
- Founding documents for OIT Student Advisory Committee
Mental Health Week 2015: Fund Request

Project Leader: Naimah Hakim & Amalya Megerman (MHI Co-Chairs)
Project Name: Dear World Project &
Date: Mental Health Week: March 2nd - March 6th
Amount Requested $3000

I. Purpose of Funding:

The USG Mental Health Initiative Board (MHI) would like to request funding from the USG Senate to support the successful and comprehensive implementation of the upcoming Mental Health Week 2015 (March 2nd - March 7th).

Some of the goals of Mental Health Week include: connecting students with information about campus resources, reducing stigma that may prevent students from seeking help, and promoting constructive dialogue across campus to build a more supportive community.

The Mental Health Initiative Board has agreed that photography campaigns have uniquely contributed to the success of MHW programming in years past and will continue to motivate students to participate in awareness-raising campaigns in the coming weeks. The bulk of our funding will be dedicated to covering transportation and lodging expenses as well as payment for Robert Fogarty and his assistant staff member as they launch the “Dear World” Photography Project Sunday, March 1st - Monday, March 2nd. We anticipate that some travel fees (airfare) may have increased since our initial budgeting estimates.

As programming with our partner organizations crystallize over the next week, we also hope to be able to have access to funding for art supplies and other incidentals that will bolster collaborative events with Princeton Perspectives Project, SHAB, and others.

Although MHI is requesting $3000 from the Senate, this should be regarded as an upper-end estimate. In 2014, MHI was awarded $4000 from the Senate, of which a majority was paid back with external funding. It should also be noted that MHI would only be drawing on Senate funds in the event that external funding could not cover necessary expenses. MHI is in the process of applying for departmental funding in the coming business-week.

Now in its fourth year, the goal of Mental Health Week is to bring together a wide-ranging series of programs and events at Princeton in order to devote special attention to issues concerning mental health and wellness in our campus community.

Request for Funding

Proposal Sponsor: Simon Wu, Social Chair
Date of Event: Friday, April 11th, 2015 and Saturday, April 24th, 2015
Project Name: NY Concert Series
Amount Requested: $5670.8

Overview
In order to respond to both upperclassmen and general demand for more easy access to New York, this spring the social Committee created an NY Concert series. We hope to pilot these two concerts this spring by sending one bus of kids to each concert. We are currently laying the groundwork for a relationship with the NY venue Terminal 5, so that we can develop an entire series of concerts for this Fall.

The Concerts
Working with Aileen Huang ’17, the committee member leading this, we picked two concerts.

OK Go – Friday, April 11th, 2015.
The Chainsmokers – Saturday, April 24th, 2015.

We selected them off of a couple criteria: the date itself (both are clear of midterms and such), popularity (need to make sure to fill one bus) and price (both are pretty modest).

Budget

Net Expenses, after subsidies
$5670.8 $1567

The Subsidized Price for each student will be $36.65.
The request is for $5670.8, but we will be receiving $4104.8 of that back from ticket sales, so our total expenditure is $1567.
This leaves a $13 per student expenditure.
Project Update

Project Leader: Kathy Chow (USLC Chair)
Date: February 21, 2015
Project Name: Free Fitness Classes

Annually, the USLC funds a series of fitness classes held by Campus Rec. These fitness classes have included the annual, popular Glow Party. Continuing the practice from last year, instead of scheduling a series of generic fitness classes on random available days, Kara Nitti, Director of Recreational Programming, and the Campus Rec team have brainstormed a series of holiday and event-themed fitness classes. The USG and USLC will be helping to advertise each of these events via social media and email listservs.

</table>

Cost Comparison:
Last year’s spring semester budget was around $1,700, and last semester’s budget was $1,539 (this was an exact calculation not a proposed budget though). Generally, USG ends up paying less than the proposed budget when actual costs are calculated and totaled.

Additional Comments:
“Countdown to spring break” includes 10 free classes, replacing the 2 BodyCombat classes and 3 “Midterm Study Break” classes from last semester (i.e. 5 more free classes for $45 cheaper)

Kara is not sure if the cycling event can happen yet, because the bikes have been moved to the MPR which makes running the program more difficult. The budgeted cost is roughly the same as last semester’s though, which included 4 days of programming.

I would appreciate if USG members could share the USG Facebook posts about these events on their personal Facebook!
PPW Project

Project Leader: Chris Shin
Project Team Members: Lavinia Liang, Simon Wu

Main Project:

1st Annual Arts Mixer - Part mixer/part showcase of student works

An opportunity for individual artists and non-performing arts groups to get together to gain awareness of the Princeton arts community that they are a part of.

Friday 2/27 - 7:30-9:30

Please come!!! :D

• Looking for new projects/potential for collaboration.
  o For example, moss graffiti with Botany Club.

• So if you know of any arts projects by anyone on campus, please tell us about them or point them to us, so that we can support them.

Past examples:
Humans of Princeton
Briana Christophers
Happiness Art for Happiness Week
Mental Health Initiative Week Update

Project Leader: Naimah Hakim & Amalya Megerman
Project Team Members: Mental Health Initiative Board
Date: Mental Health Week: March 2nd - March 6th

Mental Health Week, now in its fourth consecutive year, is fast approaching!

Goals of Mental Health Week:
- Educate and inspire student body to pursue mental wellness
- Put a spotlight on student-led/partner groups: USG Princeton Perspectives Project (PPP), Student Health Advisory Board (SHAB), To Write Love On Her Arms (New Princeton Chapter), and more!
- Encourage and increase Graduate Student participation: GSG President will advertise to Grad College
- Solicit more feedback from students: Feedback slips at every event

List of Featured Events:
- "Dear World" Photo Shoot with Robert Fogarty. (March 1st-2nd) Learn more here!
  http://www.dearworld.me/
- Princeton Distress Awareness & Response Workshop (March 2nd)
- "Test Your Mood" with CPS Counselors (March 4th)
- "Me Too Monologues" Performances (March 6th-7th)
- "Day of Mindfulness" at Carl A. Fields Center (March 7th)

Sample List of Pre-Mental Health Week Tasks:
- MHI Board working closely with IT Chairs to re-vamp the "Mindful Princeton" website:
  http://mindfulprinceton.com/
- Advertising: working on McCosh Banner and Posters
- Securing more funding from Academic Departments

Funding Updates for Mental Health Week Budget:
- Lewis Center for the Arts: pledged $2000
- Office of Campus Life: pledged $6000

How can the USG Senate Help?
- Volunteer to table during Mental Health Week - more info coming soon!
- Advertise online: listserv blasting, social media, the whole bit!
- Come out to our events!
Discussion Questions:

- Do you have any questions, concerns, or ideas about Mental Health Week 2015?
- A big part of Mental Health Week is sparking campus dialogue. What kind of dialogues would you hope students could engage in more during this week? How would this impact our programming?
- Conversations about Mental Health peaked earlier this year with the sad passing of Audrey Danzlerward '16. Does this mean something for USG programming and/or policy work moving forward?

For more info on MHI... Visit us online!

Committee Updates

University Student Life Committee, Kathy Chow

- There was a full USLC meeting with faculty and admin. We discussed bathroom codes and the lockout policy.
  - Bathroom codes: 2 students (Alex Aparicio, Zinna Senbetta) will work with Housing Services to develop a more comprehensive survey to send out to the student body
  - Lockout policy: admin gave reasons for the current policy, which seem fair to the committee (I will publish these officially at a later date). I will also follow up with Housing/p-Safe to make sure that they remember to tell students that they don’t have to return the loaner card within the hour (but after 24 hours there’s a $75 fine) and that the loaner card can be dropped off in a variety of places (including Frist)
- I met with Amanda Zeltner to get some ideas for how to pursue with Frist Reform
- I met with Dean Dunne to go through all the USLC projects and received valuable feedback for all of them (Thanks Dean Dunne!)
- Scarlett revised the suggestions for Late Meal, will meet with Smitha in the upcoming weeks
- Jessica conducted research on nap services offered by other institutions
- Zinna talked to the Rocky DSL about subsidizing punch cards – not possible because college funds are meant to build college community
- Carly talked to Jean from student agency about the grocery delivery project – main thing right now is to publicize it better
- Ella is helping us work on the independent students listserv
- Sergio is attending a meeting about improving transportation this Friday
- Jianing made a survey to see what the most desirable food items that students want to see in the dining halls are

Questions for the Senate

- What do you think about piloting a napping station in the USG Office? Even just for midterms-finals?

Social Committee, Simon Wu

Lawn parties:

- We have booked all three artists, 2 openers, 1 Headliner.

Publicity:

- Zaynab is working on revamping the FB page.
- Lawnparties.com has been updated.
- Currently working on the Hype video.
- March 10 Release of Hype video.
- April 3: Public, late meal announcement (Projector, release an act every 15 minutes)

Brunch:

- Will working on making this a Cane-Spree style brunch, where we close all of the Dining Halls.
Other Projects:

- The NY Concerts Project
  - Building relationship with Terminal 5 to create a longer term series in the Fall.
  - Two concerts for this Spring.
- Mixtape Competition
  - Created the application, worked out logistics with Dianne.
  - Meeting with Dean Dunne this Tuesday to discuss projects.

Academic Committee, Ramie Fathy

- Met with Dean Valerie Smith
  - Discussed upcoming projects/priorities
  - Schedule
    - See President’s Report for more information
  - Grade Deflation
    - The administration is already working on collecting data to evaluate the effects of eliminating grade deflation. Once this is compiled, we will be working to analyze and address the data.
  - Academic Advising
    - In the process of setting up a meeting with Dean Claire Fowler to discuss this project
  - P/D/F Policy
    - Dean Smith was supportive of re-attempting this project
    - Meeting with members of the newly appointed committee to gauge their opinions on the proposed policy so that they may be taken into account when adjusting the proposed policy
- Had a full committee meeting

Campus and Community Affairs Committee, Andrew Sun

- New committee members are in the final stages of being chosen and will be finalized by the USG Senate meeting on Sunday
- New Communiversity co-chairs will be selected from the committee
- Currently in correspondence with Erin Metro, Associate Director of Community Relations, as she is out of office for the next few weeks, to solidify Communiversity plans
- Will either be attending or send reps to attend the Whig Clio talk: Relations between Town and University: A Discussion with Princeton Mayor Liz Lempert, where Mayor Lempert will be discussing town-gown relations
- Contacting vendors to see if they can do a “Taste of Princeton” on campus
- First meeting with the new CCA committee will be at the beginning of next week, at which we will be dividing up roles and splitting members into different subgroups

IT Committee, Zachary Liu and Akash Levy

- Reviewed committee apps and completed candidate interviews
- Met with Communications Committee members to discuss website design
- Met with Timeline project leaders to get updated on current progress
