Battle of the Bands Funding Request

Project Leader: Rachel Park
Date: April 15, 2016

Overview
The committee is working with Dianne Spatifore and Dean Dunne this spring to put together a Battle of the Bands event that will most likely be held on Dillon Lawn/Little quad. The purpose being to promote unity among student music groups, a showcase of student talent on campus, and a celebration of the diversity of artistry that we have on campus. We hope that this event will become an annual fixture that students can look forward to in the Spring Semester. We will also have guest judges who were previous social committee chairs to decide the winner who will then be able to open for the opening act at Lawnparties.

Submissions
We are currently taking submissions, and our graphic will be out this week. This week, we will discuss in the Social Committee, with Dianne Spatafore and the Sound Tracks company who we can admit into the competition. The selection will be based on feasibility, the quality of their application, and experience.

The event will be taking place in Dillon Lawn, On April 15th, 2016 from 9PM-1AM. Exact starting time is TBD. Entry will be by prox, not ticketed.

Thoughts for next year:

- We are thinking of new Behind this Smile events for next year. We would like to partner with groups on campus like the Women’s Center, the LGBTQ center, and potentially the Gap Year Network.
- We are also in the process of brainstorming a bi-annual speaker series in which we would bring two speakers to campus each year who have PPP-relevant stories to share. We would like to partner with other offices and groups on campus to bring these speakers to campus.
- We will begin planning an event entitled “PPP Gone Live” this spring and next fall. The event will likely take place in March 2017 and will be a large storytelling event. We hope to have students and alumni share stories of success and failure and engage in conversation about the relationship between the two. The idea behind this event is that we would be taking the stories form our site and bringing them to life in front of students!

Diversity and Equity:

- The co chairs will be at the USG office hours this Sunday to get a feel for what the community wants of USG in terms of Diversity and Equity initiatives
- Additionally, we are planning a separate panel with the entire committee with the same goal of figuring out how the community feels this committee can be best utilized
- We are meeting with past committee members to learn about how the COMBO report and the LEAD Summit were lead.
