   A. Food for Thought
      1. Food for Thought is a group that plans to look at food from an intellectual perspective, discussing the history and politics that shape the perception and role of different foods in society today.
   B. Israel Tiger Trek
      1. Israel TigerTrek is another TigerTrek group that will be traveling to Israel to gain a deeper understanding of Israeli entrepreneurship. The group will introduce participants to the unique opportunities, problems, and challenges faced by individuals and firms in the Israeli high tech sector. It also aims to dive into Israeli history, and culture from an entrepreneurial lens, working to understand how the features of Israeli society uniquely contribute to the country’s entrepreneurial character.
   C. Knitting Club
      1. The Knitting Club will teach students how to knit and create an environment for students to knit together. The group plans to promote a love for knitting, a prioritization of mental health, and a goal of sharing our creations with friends, family, and those in need.
   D. Australia Club
      1. The Australia Club of Princeton proclaims that it has been founded and is dedicated to promote and encourage, amongst its members the welcoming of new and incoming Australian students to the Princeton community. The club will aim to create a sense of connectedness amongst Australian students on campus while also sharing and spreading Australian culture amongst the campus community. Another goal of the club is to build a stronger australian alumni connection that will last beyond their time as Princeton students.
