Water & Conservation Communications Intern Position Open

The Utah Rivers Council is looking for a hard-working person to learn about modern marketing in a conservation nonprofit organization. We are seeking a social media savvy person with knowledge or interest in water issues and conservation to join our team and learn about how communication strategies are utilized across mediums. The ideal candidate is a good writer, who has some visual design moxie. Applicants interested in improving their videography and photography skills are also encouraged to apply.

This internship requires a good writer who is passionate about protecting Utah’s lakes and rivers and has a strong understanding of social media platforms like Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. Responsibilities will include helping to manage our social media platforms, updating our websites and working with our Communications Director to write press releases, support press conferences, prepare blog posts, emails and devise communication strategies targeting elected officials and other key stakeholders.

Minimum qualifications

We are looking for a candidate with some college experience, preferably in Communications, Environmental Science or another related field. Candidates should have experience managing social media platforms like Twitter, Instagram and Facebook. A strong desire to advocate on behalf of rivers, lakes and the fish and wildlife species that depend upon them is a must. Candidates should demonstrate in their application materials that they have a basic working knowledge of the challenges faced in Utah’s water sector and the scope of natural resource challenges facing the American West. We encourage you to visit our website to ensure familiarity with our organization before applying.

Work Schedule

This is a part time internship. The Utah Rivers Council is a grassroots water advocacy organization that represents the entire economic and political spectrum in our work to implement a sustainable water future in Utah. We strive to maintain a fun, informal work environment where progress and accomplishments are measured by real success and balance and time off are a regular part of work.

To apply send a resume, a full cover letter, and a short writing sample to hiring@utahrivers.org
