The Regional Neighborhood Network Conference is now in its 32nd year and brings together movers and shakers from a cooperative network of 20+ Midwestern cities and 5 states; Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee. The City of Dayton is hosting the 2018 Conference and our theme this year is Unique and United: Crossing Barriers Building Communities.

The RNNC is a place where community leaders, neighborhood volunteers, corporations, local government agencies, philanthropist, real estate developers and businesses gather to exchange information with one another in order to gain valuable ideas to take back and help improve or transform their own communities. The RNNC features a wide variety of workshops about state of the art approaches to neighborhood improvements, area redevelopments, crime safety, and public and private investments. In addition to these informative workshops, the RNNC is a great opportunity to network with your neighboring peers from other States and enjoy Dayton's great food and entertainment!

Who Attends the RNNC

- Nonprofit organizations with a mission to build resilient families and vibrant communities
- Local units of government (municipal and county) responsible for community development
- Economic development planning
- Financial and investment institutions committed to community reinvestment
- Allies in philanthropy
- Real estate developers and agents
- Social entrepreneurs
- Public housing authorities
- Neighborhood & community Leaders
- Mayors, Commissioners, and department heads

If you are interested in presenting or know of someone who would make a great workshop facilitator, please review or share this information.
