The National WWII Museum, located in downtown New Orleans on a six-acre campus, includes five soaring pavilions, which house historical exhibits, on-site restoration work, a period dinner theater, and restaurants.

Features immersive exhibits, multimedia experiences, and an expansive collection of artifacts and first-person oral histories, taking visitors inside the story of the war that changed the world.

The event will take place in the US Freedom Pavilion, the premier venue of the museum, which has a B-17 flying fortress hanging along with five other warbirds that attendees can learn about while touring the Pavilion.

In front of the Pavilion, the outdoor space Col. Barksdale Parade Grounds, is where attendees can have fun with a photobooth, karaoke and more.

Included as a part of the Barksdale Parade Ground, attendees will be able to attend one of two showings of the brand-new Sound and Light show, Expressions of America, a 25-minute, outdoor, nighttime sound, and light experience celebrating the power of individual Americans that impacted the world around them during a time of monumental conflict.

Shuttle Bus boarding will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the hotel, with shuttles returning back to the hotel throughout the evening. The last bus to the hotel will depart the WWII Museum at 10:30 p.m.

Attendees must bring their ticket provided at registration to board the bus. There will be no admittance to the event without a ticket.
