

Jeannie Cho Lee is the first and only Asian among 279 Masters of Wine (MW) and one of only 75 women with that qualification. She is an award winning author, editor, wine critic, judge and educator living in Hong Kong.

2013 GALLICA - CABERNET SAUVIGNON

A powerful, compact and dense red with layers of firm tannins and gorgeous dark berry fruit and sweet spices. This is an intense red with great potential age - the wine has both concentration and depth.

Ready to drink : 2020+

2012 GALLICA - CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Generous, fruity with nice depth and velvety, firm tannins. Good acidity and freshness with long length. There is 10% Cabernet Franc, giving it herbal flavor and depth. A wonderful, balanced wine with potential to age.

Ready to drink : 2019+

2011 GALLICA - CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Floral and minty notes with lively fruit profile and freshness. Approachable and light with expressive palate - delicious now and ready to drink.

2010 GALLICA - CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Fantastic vintage for Gallica - this layered, perfumed vintage has a lightness on the palate that exudes finesse with power. Sold off 25% of the crop to maintain this quality. This vintage will just be released in 2014. Expressive and complex with long length.

Ready to drink : 2017+

2009 GALLICA - CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Sweet opulent fruit with lovely layered flavors - generous and powerful with a very long, velvety finish. A classic Napa vintage with cocoa and earthy finish. Subtle and textured with good extract. Approachable wine even when young.

2008 GALLICA - CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Beautifully textured with fresh herbal notes, blackberry and boysenberry fruit. Richly textured with firm, velvety tannins and long finish. There was frost in April with small berries. This wine is just becoming mature at 6 years old.

Please visit www.gallicawine.com for more information.