

“Anyone can be a fisherman in May.” Ernest Miller Hemingway

From his time in Spain watching the matadors, to patrolling Cuban waters aboard the “Pilar,” Ernest Hemingway found inspiration from his surroundings. His fishing expeditions from “Cayo Hueso” to the coast of Cuba are portrayed in many of his writings. The culture and cuisine of these areas are where we find our inspiration. Hemingway’s is home to many of “Papa’s” favorite dishes, and soon, some of yours.
