

What should they do situations....

Josh isn't allowed to watch scary movies, but he has watched a few sort of scary movies and nothing has happened. Josh's mom is helping his older brother with his homework and there is a scary movie on tv. Josh knows that he could watch the scary movie and his mom would never know..... what should he do?

Isabella had an argument with her friend Emma at school. Emma said some really mean things to Isabella that hurt her feelings. Isabella would like to go and tell all her friends about all the mean things that Emma said to her so that no one will play with Emma any more.....what should she do?

Ethan is playing soccer with his friends. He is the goalie for his team. He tries to save a goal but it just crosses the line as he catches the ball. He quickly steps forward and no one but Ethan knows if it was goal or not....what should he do?

Sophia loves cookies and her mom just made a whole container full. Sophia knows that she can't eat cookies before dinner, but she could sneak a few, go into her room to eat them and her mom would never know.....what should she do?

Alex doesn't like hot dogs but there is a rule in his house that you have to eat what you are given. Alex takes the hot dog out of his bun, eats the bun and hides the hotdog in one of the kitchen drawers where his mom isn't looking. Later on Alex's mom finds the hotdog, and asks him if he put it in the drawer.....what should he do?

