Democratic political process (II): The unilateral declaration of independence will generate a conflict that, well managed, can lead us to our own State

The government of Spain will not recognize the right to make a Referendum, but if it sees everything is lost, it will make us do it so that we lose it

#ENFOCATS NOW AVAILABLE IN THE 24 EU OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

Given Mr. Puigdemont has decided to keep touting his pleas around Europe, this newspaper has decided to faithfully reproduce and translate into the 24 European Union official languages the pages of the roadmap for independence document "#ENFOCATS", previously leaked by the Spanish press.

We hope this journalistic effort will cast light on how Independentists have tried to orchestrate a coup d'état in the XXI century through a well-planned propaganda campaign. This campaign emphasizes Catalan "Victimization" which is designed to provoke international sympathy and ultimately, independence. Their "Strategy" contemplates a "violent reaction of the state" as well as a "Democratic conflict with broad popular support oriented to the generation of political and economic instability". Their "Plan" shows that the only "dialogue" the Separatists ever wanted was to impose their vision and political goals on the people of Catalonia at all costs. This Plan was executive-ly lead by former Catalan President Carles Puigdemont. //Keep reading at www.Tabarnia.Today

PROGRAMA 2000 STRATEGY FOR RECATALANIZATION

This document, dated in 1990 was officially circulated from the highest spheres of Catalan Government and personally revised by Jordi Pujol, President of Catalonia from 1980 to 2003. It laid the grounds for a Catalan nationalist strategy that has, slowly but steadily, taken place in Catalonia for the past 28 years. Present day Catalan political parties are direct ideological descendants of CDC and UDC, authors of the document. The following is the complete text, translated from the original Catalan version.

1.-COLLECTIVE THINKING

Goals.

Development of the following lines of awareness:

a) Configuration of the Catalan personality: Explanation and empowerment of the basic, defining and positive axes of our collective personality. Choice and dissemination of the concepts that allow the maximum strengthening of our people (be more educated, more modern, more civic, more supportive, more European, love work, taste for a job well done, verify the roots, validity of Christian values ...) in accordance with the challenges posed by the present world.

b) Diffusion of the Catalan history and the Catalan national reality: Diffusion of the crucial events of our history and our historical figures, as well as the contribution of the Catalan people to European culture and science. Promotion of popular festivals, traditions, customs and their mythical background.

c) New concept of nation within the European framework: Catalonia (Països Catalans), as an emerging European nation. Reaffirmation of the European sentiment. A Europe without borders must be a Europe that recognize its nations.

d) Discovery of our future potential: Catalonia (Països Catalans), as the center of gravity of the south of the EEC. Preferential economic-cultural performance on the north-western Mediterranean arch and the Occitan-Catalan area. Maximum attention to the axis formed by the Barcelona-Montpellier-Toulouse triangle. We must also take into account the relationship between Catalonia and Aragon. And mutual intercomprehension area of Alicante to the Alps.

e) The demographic factor: Only the populations who are young advance. It is necessary to make our people aware of the need to have more children to guarantee our collective personality.

f) Remembrance of grievances: Catalonia is a discriminated nation that can not freely develop its cultural and economic potential. Discovery, verification, weighting and dissemination of discriminatory facts, shortcomings, etc., in a clear, forceful and systematic way. Remarking the negative impact that this has for the whole Catalan people and for each of its citizens.

g) Collective awareness raising: Catalonia is a culture that walks in search of its sovereignty within the European framework. Identitarian awareness to strengthen the social soul. Underpinning our own center of gravity within Europe. Reform of the Autonomy treaty within Spain.

h) Social aspect: Greater freedom for Catalonia means greater social welfare

“ Remembrance of grievances: Catalonia is a discriminated nation that can not freely develop its cultural and economic potential. ”

“ New concept of nation within the European framework: Catalonia (Països Catalans), as emerging European nation. ”

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE FROM THE EXILE

Fictional Tabarnia is now officially a Movement. So much so that Tabarnia even has a President. Currently in exile until our constitutional right to live with a deep sense of humour is restored in Catalonia, he dedicated some warm, clarifying words to all of its followers:

“Butifarra to the Catalonia that the separatists want to impose on us” - he stated. We can't but express our wish for an early and safe return of such great statesman in such difficult times. His speech now available in English. //Watch video at www.Tabarnia.Today

EDITORIAL

Tabarnia Today is the first official newspaper of Tabarnia, a popular platform of Tarragona and Barcelona unionist regions that refutes Catalan Separatist logic with their same arguments (and tripled wit). We are a perfect mirror of the Separatist political demands and ask for nothing they haven't asked for.

It is this newspaper's belief that as a country Spain has not made the necessary efforts to explain the Unionist point of view to the world. Since it is in the international political arena where separatists are playing what we consider to be a farce, it is our intention to expose them. In the next days/weeks this newspaper intends to publish enough material in English to explain a point of view that we feel has been silenced in Catalonia.

We will give you proof of how Catalan Nationalism is not very different from other forms of nationalism: A hate-based populist movement that pictures an outside enemy (Spain) as the root of all their evils. A selfish economic agenda disguised as the identitarian issue of a "Historic Nation with medieval rights" (their words). A propaganda-of-fear message that does not hesitate to awake the ghosts of our still recent civil war to emotionally divide the Catalan society in two.

"Truth will set us free," the saying goes. If the politicians responsible for dividing the Catalan society should be deprived of that freedom is up to Spanish justice to decide. And while we do not wish jail to anyone, as Catalan citizens we can't but strongly demand our wish and right to be governed by politicians who understand their role as bringing people together and not apart; politicians whose highest interest is to create a working society rather than a dysfunctional one that pushes voters in despair and confusion to their sectarian political agenda.

We believe that the dynamics derived from a Separatist agenda that has ruled over Catalonia for the past 25 years are indeed toxic for true civic progress. Toxic because it has become their conscious or unconscious interest to create an unsatisfied society, one in which deficient social services and economic prosperity can be used to blame the Spanish central government and reinforce their push for independence. We can't help but wonder what a greater Catalonia we could have today if all those efforts, time and resources for independence had been used to create a cohesive society.

Despite all the nationalist propaganda efforts, a majority of voters did not vote for a pro-independence party in the latest Catalan elections. If separatists have majority in Parliament is because the vote in Separatist regions counts for more than 2.28 times the vote of other Unionist regions.

Spain is not a "perfect" country, we'll give you that. But to say that it is not a true democracy; that it lives under the shadow of dictator Franco who died in 1975 (years before many of these separatist youngsters were born); that the Spanish Constitution does not allow a framework of freedom under which we daily share our lives and celebrate our cultural differences: To all these we say enough.

Tabarnia wishes that we all are allowed to live together in Catalonia. But if worse comes to worse, we would also claim our equally democratic right (just as rightful, democratic and equal as the one Separatists claim for themselves) to remain part of Spain. And we would do so under legal constitutional procedures and democratic referendum.

Tabarnia might have been born with a satirical sense of humour, but it is no joke.

We invite you to follow this journalistic effort and decide if you want to spread the point of view of those who want to feel Catalan, Spanish and above all European.

If that is not possible, feeling Tabarnian, Spanish and European, will do just fine.

THE TRUE SEPARATIST FLAG

In the latest official Catalan elections, out of the total 5.550.000 electorate, 37.1 % of people voted for a Separatist party. 39.8 % voted for a Unionist party. And the rest just didn't care enough about an independent Catalonia to go vote. Here is the true republican flag that separatists are trying to sell to the world. Please, do not buy into it.

JUNTSxCAT = 940.602
ERC-CatSí = 929.407
CUP = 193.352
TOTAL ELECTORATE = 5.550.000

TABARNIA SAYS HELLO!

Tabarnia says Hello! to the world with a series of videos that explain our positive pro-european values and desire for togetherness.

Tabarnia does not represent a single political vision and is open to everyone. We believe there are many things that could be much better in Spain, but breaking it apart is not the solution. We believe the true quality of love is to bring things together and point to what we have in common. We believe fear, selfishness and confusion hide in ideals that serve the opposite purpose.

We do not hate Separatists. We just think some ideas they hold on to are wrong and old fashioned. And we intend to explain them, very clearly, and the why. This is not a conflict that can be won by "defeating our enemy", because our "enemy" is our neighbour, a member of our family or a good old friend. We need to win each other back.

And with all due respect, we are not Slovenia nor Québec. We are Catalan and Spanish and this will be known as the "Tabarnian Route". We intend to show the world how the country of Don Quijote solves its differences. Hold onto your wit and sense of humour: If they say goodbye, we'll say hello!
