The National Council on School Facilities is the nonprofit membership association of state-level facilities officials of U.S. states, territories, and federal agencies. The mission of the Council is to educate, serve, and advocate on behalf of states in their responsibilities for the nation’s public school buildings and grounds.

 Whereas: High-quality management decisions are best made when school districts have comprehensive information and the authority to act on such information; and

 Whereas: High-quality facilities management practices lead to safe and healthy schools, lead to well planned and executed capital projects, and contribute to positive educational outcomes;

 Therefore be it resolved that:

 The National Council on School Facilities advocates for and supports action at the local, state, and national levels to improve PK–12 facilities-management policies and practices.

 Approved by vote of the members of the National Council on School Facilities present on December 6, 2016.

 Mike Rowland, President