About the Youth Programs Directory

Welcome to the New Orleans Youth Programs Directory! This guide serves as a resource to connect youth, their families and the community to the youth-serving programs available in New Orleans. Our youth deserve every opportunity to learn, grow and lead, and this directory will help them make informed decisions about which programs are best suited for them.

The New Orleans Youth Alliance (NOYA) is the youth development intermediary for the Greater New Orleans area. NOYA works to cultivate a system of high-quality, well-resourced youth development organizations that center youth leadership and racial equity in their work with young people. NOYA achieves its mission through three key areas of service: program quality and professional development, policy and advocacy, and organizational effectiveness.

Girls on the Run

ADDRESS: 7100 Saint Charles Ave, 1st Floor
New Orleans, LA 70118

PHONE: (504) 272-7786
WEBSITE: www.gotrno.org

ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION: At Girls on the Run, we inspire girls to recognize their inner strength and celebrate what makes them one of a kind. Trained coaches lead small teams through our research-based curricula which includes dynamic discussions, activities and running games. Over the course of the ten-week program, girls in 3rd 8th grade develop essential skills to help them navigate their worlds and establish a lifetime appreciation for health and fitness. The program culminates with girls positively impacting their communities through a service project and being physically and emotionally prepared to complete a 5K event.

ADDRESS: 365 Canal Street, Suite 1550
New Orleans, LA 70130

PHONE: (504) 599-7712

WEBSITE: www.iwesnola.org

ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION: Founded in 1993, the Institute of Women & Ethnic Studies (IWES) is a national non-profit health organization domiciled in New Orleans. Many people of color and their families in the Greater New Orleans area do not have access to programs that address their full mental, emotional and physical health. This prevents people in our city from living fully healthy lives and weakens our communities. Because of this, IWES works with communities, schools, individuals and organizations to provide tailored health and wellness services that address this lack of health options and access. We combine advocacy, health education, research and direct services to improve wellness in local communities. Ultimately, when New Orleans is a city that puts health first, our people live happier, more resilient lives and our communities will be stronger!

Additional Resources for Schools & Programs

Artist Corps New Orleans

<http://www.artistcorpsnola.org/>

Artist Corps New Orleans partners with schools and arts organizations to match music resources, programs and personnel, and to EMPOWER EDUCATORS through professional development and coaching.

Children & Youth Planning Board (CYPB)

<https://www.nolacypb.org/>

The CYPB is to participate in the formulation of and to prepare a comprehensive plan for services and programs for the children and youth of New Orleans. The Board is intended to encourage collaborative efforts among local stakeholders for assessing the physical, social, emotional, developmental, behavioral, educational, safety, and poverty impacts and needs of children, youth and families in their respective communities, and for assisting in the development of comprehensive plans to address such needs.

City of New Orleans Office of Youth & Families

<https://nola.gov/office-of-youth-and-families/>

The New Orleans Office of Youth and Families builds a strong foundation for future generations of New Orleanians by engaging youth and the community in providing input into city government decisions affecting young people, improving coordination between agencies, expanding resources, and ensuring equitable policymaking. The Office of Youth and Families provides oversight and support for the Youth Study Center (YSC), the New Orleans Recreation Department Commission (NORDC), and New Orleans Public Libraries (NOPL).

Laureus Sport for Good Foundation

<https://www.laureus.com/sport-for-good>

Laureus serves as a bridge for sport and youth development organizations and a destination for funders, researchers and policymakers that are interested in hanging community chemistry from what is predictable to what is possible.

New Orleans Arts Education Alliance (NOAEA)

<https://artsedall.org/>

The New Orleans Arts Education Alliance works together across schools and communities to ensure meaningful, equitable arts education for all children in New Orleans public schools.

New Orleans Early Education Network (NOEEN)

<http://www.agendaforchildren.org/noeen.html>

The New Orleans Early Education Network (NOEEN) is working to have a collective impact on the early childhood sector in New Orleans by increasing at-risk children's access to quality early care and education and by designing and implementing a systematic approach to improve the quality of all publicly funded early learning programs. NOEEN offers

New Orleans Youth Alliance (NOYA)

<http://www.neworleansyouthalliance.org>

NOYA is the youth development intermediary for the Greater New Orleans area. NOYA works to cultivate a system of high-quality, well-resourced, youth development organizations that center youth leadership and racial equity in their work with young people. NOYA achieves its mission through three key areas of service: program quality and professional development, policy and advocacy, and organizational effectiveness.

New Pathways New Orleans (NPNO)

<https://npno.org/>

NPNO builds cross-sector solutions for New Orleans youth with significant needs by bringing knowledge and new resources to the table, aligning stakeholders into action, and catalyzing program and system-level innovation.
