NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF AFRICAN-AMERICAN HONORS PROGRAMS

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 1: NAME

This organization shall be known as the National Association of African-American Honors Programs.

ARTICLE 2: OBJECTIVE

The objective of this Association shall be the promotion and advancement of honors and similar educational programs in Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU), and in Predominately Black Colleges and Universities (PBCU), as well as institutions which provide honors education for African-American students.

The specific goals of the Association include:

1. To develop, enhance, and support honors programs in all Historically/Predominately Black Institutions.
2. To stimulate and encourage community service and leadership as one of the high aims of education.
3. To sponsor and encourage scholarly research that address admission and retention of talented students, as well other challenges confronting honors education in Historically Black Colleges and Universities.
4. To advocate the funding of honors programs by federal and state agencies as well as by private philanthropic foundations and organizations.
5. To facilitate the enrollment of African-American students into graduate and professional schools.
6. To promote a curriculum that fosters a life-long disciplined approach to knowledge and scholarship through inquiry and exploration.
7. To develop an undergraduate educational environment that promotes scholarship, knowledge, and an appreciation of African-American culture as a mirror for understanding other great world cultures.

ARTICLE 3: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Active membership in the Association shall consist of two categories: individual membership and institutional membership.

a. Individual membership shall be open to faculty members, administrators, students and other persons interested in honors and similar educational programs at HBCUs and PBCUs. The two categories of individual membership shall be known as student membership and professional membership.
b. Institutional membership shall be open to institutions of higher learning as well as to foundations and government agencies interested in honors and similar educational programs at HBCUs or PBCUs, or at an institution which provides honors education for African-American students.

Section 2: Honorary membership may be bestowed upon any individual in recognition of distinguished service toward the objectives of the Association. Such action shall only be taken at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Association, upon nomination by the Executive Council.

Section 3: Sustaining membership may be held by foundations, associations, and other institutions of higher education which serve African-American students.

ARTICLE 4: GOVERNANCE

Section 1: General authority to govern the Association shall be vested in the membership as defined in Article 3 of the Constitution.

Section 2: The Executive Council shall be empowered to conduct business of the Association as provided by the Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 3: Each individual member and each representative of an institutional member shall be entitled to vote in all transactions of the Association, whether in meetings or by mail ballot, in accordance with regulations set forth in the By-Laws. Each person shall be entitled to one vote only, either as an individual member or as a representative of an institutional member.

Section 10.  The National Executive Director shall be appointed by the Executive Council and shall serve at the pleasure of the Executive Council.

Section 11.  In the event of the death or the inability of any officer to continue in office other than the President, the interim succession of officers shall be decided by the Executive Council.

Section 12.  Newly elected officers shall assume office as soon as the results of their election are officially certified by the Secretary and the Treasurer.
Section 13. The offices of President, Vice President/President Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and the National Executive Director shall be filled by individuals from the professional membership of the NAAAHP.

Section 14. The offices of Second Vice President and Assistant Secretary-Treasurer shall be filled from the student membership of the NAAAHP.

ARTICLE 7: EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1. The Executive Council shall consist of the elected officers. The National Executive Director shall be a non-voting member of the Executive Council.

Section 2. The Executive Council shall transact such business of the Association as may be referred to it by the membership and by the officers in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws and may initiate proposals to be acted upon by the membership.

Section 3. The President of the Association shall serve as the Chairperson of the Executive Council, and the Secretary shall serve as the secretary of the Executive Council.

Section 4. A majority of the membership of the Executive Council shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE 8: RESTRICTION PERTAINING TO TERMS OF OFFICE

Except for the Secretary and Treasurer, no other elected officer of the Association who has served a full term may be elected to succeed himself/herself to the same office upon the completion of his/her term. However, should the President Elect not be able to fulfill his or her term as President, the Past President may remain in office until a successor can be appointed or elected by the Association. A Past President may only be re-elected to the Office of President after one year following their current office.

ARTICLE 9: ANNUAL MEETINGS

Section 1: The Association shall hold regular annual meetings at times and places to be determined by the Executive Council.

Section 2: The agenda of the business meeting at each annual meeting shall be prepared by the Executive Council.

Section 3: Voting by proxy shall not be permitted at annual meetings.

ARTICLE 10: MAIL VOTE

Between annual meetings any questions or items of business may be submitted by the Executive Council to a vote of the Association membership via electronic ballot or other means deemed appropriate by the President.
ARTICLE 11: AMENDMENTS

Any proposal to amend this Constitution shall be referred in writing to the Executive Council for suitable working which clearly expresses the intent of the proposal and which is consistent with the other sections of the Constitution. It shall then be submitted in writing to the National Executive Director at least sixty days prior to a regular annual meeting of the Association. A copy of such proposed amendment shall be mailed by the National Executive Director to each individual and institutional member at least thirty days prior to the said annual meeting. Alternatively, such proposed amendments may be included in any NAAAHP official publication received by all NAAAHP members, provided the proposed amendments receive prominence and mailing of that issue of the publication is at least thirty days prior to the said annual meeting. Such amendments shall, upon receiving approval of two-thirds of the members present and voting at a regular annual meeting, become part of the Constitution effective immediately.
