Election Preparedness for Infrastructure and Cybersecurity
EPIC 2018: By the numbers

- 302 total participants
  - 167 trainees
  - 56 moderators
  - 10 support staff
  - 47 observers
  - 22 press
- Cost ~$82,000
EPIC 2018: Logistics lessons

• Time and resources
  • Project team
  • Moderator training

• Agenda
  • Last minute schedule changes
  • Lunch speaker

• Press
  • Ground rules
EPIC 2020: By the numbers

• 289 total participants
  • 192 trainees
  • 48 moderators
  • 14 support staff
  • 30 observers
  • 5 press
• Cost ~34,000
EPIC 2020: Logistics lessons

- Time and resources
  - Project team and planning timeline
  - Moderator training
- Moderator and participant materials
  - Proofreading
- Room logistics
  - Noise considerations
EPIC 2022: By the numbers

• 4 regions – 5 training locations
• 155 total participants
  • 141 trainees
  • 12 moderators for each location
  • 2 support staff
  • No observers
  • No press
• Cost ~$7,400
EPIC 2022: Everything is a contingency

• COVID
  • Canceled planned January event
  • Rescheduled regionally
  • Safety protocols

• Time and resources
  • Project team
  • Moderator training

• Room logistics
Hilary Rudy
Deputy Elections Director
hilary.rudy@coloradosos.gov

For reliable election information go to www.GoVoteColorado.gov