VOLUNTEER
The DCA could not operate without the support and dedication of community volunteers. Whether you have an artistic talent you would like to share, or would just like to get involved, volunteering with the DCA is the perfect opportunity to give back to the community while enjoying and supporting the arts. We have a wide variety of areas to volunteer and you can even use your hours for school or work credit.

EDUCATE
Our aim is to engage children, teens, and adults in the artistic process, cultivate appreciation of cultural arts, and make cultural arts a vital and integral part of community life. If you are interested in teaching visual, performing, or literary arts for people of any age, please contact us.

EXHIBIT
The DCA is open to your vision. All media will be considered including installation, digital, performance, and video. All types of artists, emerging to experienced, as well as groups and arts organizations may submit a proposal for exhibit. Download a proposal application from www.downriverarts.org.

GIFT SHOP
Visit the DCA Gift Shop, where we provide artists a unique retail space to sell one-of-a-kind items year round. Give the gift of art! If you are interested in selling your work, please contact us.
our mission

To enrich the quality of life in the Downriver communities by advocating and promoting the arts and providing opportunities for involvement and participation in arts and cultural activities.

who we are

Founded in 1978, the Downriver Council for the Arts (DCA) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) arts and cultural organization that proudly serves nearly 400,000 residents in 21 Downriver communities. We actively support local artists and performers with opportunities for involvement and participation in the arts through lectures, adult and youth classes, summer youth art camps, gallery exhibits, cultural events, theater productions, literary events, music concerts, an artist gift gallery, facility rentals and volunteer opportunities. The DCA creates regional partnerships with other cultural organizations, schools and service clubs to promote artistic, cultural and special events throughout Southeast Michigan. We hold these activities in our Arts Center and by operating in the various cities we serve.
