LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Eight million touches. That’s how many times the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES) interacts with Illinois’ residents and employers each year. These touches happen in many ways. Hundreds of thousands of touches come from Illinois workers who have been laid off from a job when they seek Unemployment Insurance financial assistance.

Hundreds of thousands of touches come from employers when they file taxes or request tax refunds. Tens of thousands of touches come from unemployed workers and veterans seeking employment guidance or to reconnect with the workforce.

The review that follows seeks to capture the scope and breadth of change that IDES employees have endeavored to make since January 2015 to improve every touch. This review is not in any sense a “Mission Accomplished” victory lap, because we know we still don’t get all the touches right. Rather, it is simply the most current chapter in IDES’ journal of service to Illinois.

But the beginning of this chapter must start with a thank you to Governor Rauner and his staff for their unwavering support; to the Legislature and their staff for their guidance and engagement; to the statewide business and labor leaders who, at every quarterly meeting encouraged us to stay the course; and most importantly, to my senior leadership and to the 1100+ employees of IDES from Mt. Vernon to Chicago, Quincy to Danville…they didn’t just embrace and implement the change…they helped envision it. As Director of IDES, I’ve had the wind at my back.

Certainly, there remain challenges before us. All that we stretched to accomplish is not done. These challenges will form the core of the next chapter. For our part, I believe IDES is very well positioned to move forward.

Sincerely,

Jeff Mays, Director

With the launch of our newly revised internet claim application, application filing issues by claimants have been reduced by over 80% and call center assistance has been reduced by over 50%.

Technology systems upgrades cited above have led to millions of dollars of savings through numerous operational efficiencies and enhanced capabilities. They have also markedly improved the services we provide employers and claimants. The following flow just from our MyTax project:

From 2017 - 2018 quarterly electronic tax filings have increased, while quarterly paper checks processed have decreased

Additionally:

- IDES recovered over $1 million in delinquent taxes through referral to the Taxpayer Offset Program.
- IDES reduced postage and printing costs by $1.2 million.
- Employers can now see all tax correspondence on line. IDES reduced the number of tax related letters by 2/3 and re-wrote all letters using plain language guidelines.
- IDES cleansed over 27,000 tax records prior to conversion.

IDES is committed to continuous improvement and rapid results is the process we use to drive it. In the past three years over 10% of IDES employees have been trained in Rapid Results to reduce unnecessary spending and improve processes, with dozens of projects either implemented or underway.
