Homeward Bound Auction

Johnson County IHN is going online! Check it out on September 29 at the 9th annual auction, Homeward Bound. Silent auction bidding opens on Friday, September 25 at 10 am and closes after the live event on Tuesday, September 29. The live event is 7–8 pm.

At the live event there will be a raffle drawing, Fund a Need and live auction with Joe Lauria as the master of ceremonies and auctioneer Shannon Mays from Raising Paddles LLC — all to make for a great evening.

Use this link to purchase tickets: https://jocoihn.givesmart.com or text jocoihn to 76278 on your smartphone. The cost of obtaining a virtual ticket to this year’s auction is $50 and is a contribution showing your commitment to participate in the event. Questions: jocoihnauion@ gmail.com

Hope at Home Virtual Gala for Cross-Lines
Saturday, September 19, 7 pm

You won’t want to miss the first-ever virtual Gala featuring singer, writer, and entertainer, Jim “Mr. Stinky Feet” Cosgrove who will emcee. You will enjoy stories, laughter, and some toe-tapping tunes!

The annual Gala is typically the biggest fundraiser of the year. The money raised provides crucial support to our programs. Due to the pandemic, Hope at Home will be the only fundraiser in 2020 which means Cross-Lines needs your support now more than ever! You don’t need to buy a ticket, get dressed up, or find a parking spot; just sign in! This year every bit of your dollar goes towards helping the most vulnerable in our community who have been devastated by the pandemic economic crisis.

The online auction opens Monday, September 14.

Jim Cosgrove has been rocking families for more than two decades. He has performed thousands of high-energy shows throughout North America and Europe and his nine family albums have earned critical acclaim and a dozen national parenting awards. He is the author of three children’s books and a collection of essays from his time as a parenting columnist for the Kansas City Star. Jim and his wife Jeni have dedicated their lives to supporting and promoting organizations like Cross-Lines that help families who are most in need.

Welcome to ALL!
Welcome to worship!
“Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised!”
Psalm 145:3a

Preparation for Worship

LORD, You guided Israel with fire and cloud; I see Your direction for me too:
through prayer, wise friends and here in worship. Thank you! Amen.

Praise

WHEN THINGS FALL APART

Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me.
John 14:1

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.
Jeremiah 29:11

I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten.
Joel 2:25

Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you.
I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.
Isaiah 41:10
Outdoor Service
An Outdoor Service at Knox! The services are held Saturdays at 7pm. There is singing (with masks) and a short devotion. It is simple and informal. Bring your own lawn chair and meet at the west side of the campus. There will be a hospitality table with refreshments. All will be done with appropriate social distancing.
Saturdays, 7pm
