Which program is right for me?

CARE
Eligibility based on public assistance program participation (like Medicaid or food stamps) or based on the number of individuals in your household and your total gross household income.

Reduces electricity bills by 35% and gas bills by 20%.

FERA
Eligibility based on the number of individuals in your household and your total gross household income. FERA is only available to households of 3+ people.

Reduces electricity bills by 18%.

How do I enroll?
Review the requirements on the reverse side of this page. If you believe your household qualifies, you should submit an application. Renewals and new enrollment applications are handled by PG&E.

Enroll online: pge.com/carefera. Enroll by phone: Call PG&E at (866) 743-2273.
Questions? Contact PG&E at CAREandFERA@pge.com or (866) 743-2273.
Learn if your household qualifies...

Review the guidelines below to see if you qualify for CARE or FERA. Note: you can qualify for CARE by meeting income requirements OR participating in a listed public assistance program.

Total Gross Income (CARE and FERA):

Income requirements listed for CARE and FERA reflect your household’s current income as of today. If your circumstances have recently changed, such as a job loss, please apply based on your estimated 2020 income. You may still qualify even if you are receiving unemployment benefits.
