START TALKING. Find a conversation starter for your group.

- When was the first time you heard a sermon about sexuality?

START THINKING. Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- What Bible text has most influenced your thinking about sexuality?

START SHARING. Choose a question to create openness.

- What are the three prominent ideas about sexuality in 1 Corinthians 6 & 7?
- Have you ever heard about the movie “1946?” If so, what were your initial thoughts?
- What other NT teachings condemn homosexuality? What are some progressive arguments for homosexual unions?
- Do you feel like the Church talks too much or too little about the subject of homosexuality?
- What is the danger to the Church if we “cherry pick” homosexuality from Paul’s list in 1 Corinthians 6?
- How has the Church in many ways given up the “moral high ground” when it comes to sexuality? How does our open heterosexual sins diminish our influence in the LGBT community?
- How do people “misuse” or “misinterpret” the phrase “all things are lawful, but not all things are beneficial?” What’s the context of this saying?
- Why is sexual immorality so enslaving?
- What is the danger of thinking that sex is merely physical?
- What is the danger of thinking that sex is unimportant?
- What was not taught in Luke’s sermon regarding 1 Corinthians 6:9-20

START PRAYING. Be bold and pray with power.

- Pray that God would put the right people in Discipleship Academy for our next class. Pray that CH would make disciples in a more intentional way.
