Digital Organizer

About Community Voices Heard:

Community Voices Heard (CVH) is a member-led, multi-racial organization, principally composed of women of color and low-income families in New York State, that builds power to secure racial, social, and economic justice for all. Founded in 1994 by welfare recipients in New York City working to fight unjust welfare policies, we have since expanded our organization to include working on seminal issues throughout New York State. Our core organizing issues include fighting for truly affordable housing, a just social safety net, access to good jobs, criminal justice reform, immigration reform, and an open, participatory democracy.

About the Role:

The Digital Organizer’s primary role is supporting our small but mighty Communications and Organizing teams. This includes managing our member database, and mobilizing our members through digital communications like email, text, and social media. Job responsibilities also include supporting CVH’s communications by: writing and designing digital newsletters, growing our digital platforms, creating social media posts and other materials, responding to individual and group sign ups, and targeted digital fundraising.

Location: New York, New York

Reports to: Communications Manager

Principal Duties and Responsibilities:

Working closely with the Communications Manager, the Digital Organizer is responsible for:

1. Managing our membership database in EveryAction to support the activities of our organizing team, and managing digital mobilization of our members, including 1:1 texting and text-banking through Hustle.

2. Executing the email strategy for the organization, creating email and newsletters, designing and implementing strategies for growing email lists of the organization, and producing analytic reports on the performance of emails and acquisition campaigns.
3. Executing a social media strategy for the organization using a variety of channels (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, and more), as well as creating reports to track progress and conducting online research to develop strategies that expand the organization’s reach.

4. Creating graphics and visually-appealing materials, including event invitations, organizing materials (postcards, door hangers, etc.), and social media posts.

5. Crafting response templates and processes for individuals and organizations that reach CVH through our website and developing welcome packages and individual responses, as needed.

6. Working collaboratively with various departments to create thoughtful and engaging digital content, digital strategies, and campaigns.

7. Responding to the changing and dynamic needs of a small organization; providing technical insights and solutions as the organization grows and expands.

8. Supporting the organization to initiate a member-based strategy for ongoing communications, donations, and field-building.
