Medtronic American Indian Employee Resource Group
2022-2023 Scholarship Program

The Medtronic American Indian Employee Resource Group was created in order to advance the health and well-being of the American Indian population. This scholarship program has been developed to give American Indian students an opportunity to reach their educational goals. To apply for this scholarship program students must meet the following requirements:

Eligible Degrees
Health and Sciences, Business Administration or Biomedical Engineering Degree

Student Status
Students must be a 1st or 2nd generation college / university student, a U.S. citizen, accepted as a full-time undergraduate or graduate student enrolled at an accredited four-year college/university and be pursuing a bachelors, masters, or doctoral degree.

Grade Point Average
Must have a 3.0 or higher cumulative grade point average (GPA).

Tribal Citizenship
Applicants must be: an enrolled citizen or a descendant of an enrolled citizen of a federal or state recognized American Indian Tribe or Alaska Native Village; or Native Hawaiian or descendant from a Native Hawaiian; or Pacific Islander. Enrollment documents and/or a copy of birth certificate(s) showing descendancy from an enrolled citizen are acceptable. Applicant may also, instead, provide a copy of their Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood or Certificate of Degree of Alaska Native Blood (CDIB) card.

Scholarship Application
We kindly request that the applicant provide the following as part of their application:

- Resume
- Two letters of recommendation
- 500-word essay regarding the first tenant of the Medtronic mission statement.

The AIERG will provide three scholarships in the amount of $5,500 dollars each.

Applications must be submitted by: August 15th, 2022

Scholarships will be awarded by October 28th, 2022

Please apply for the scholarship here: Medtronic AIERG Scholarship application