This offer includes a discounted rate of 50% off regular rates (excluding airfare to/from the park entrance). Proof of membership is required. Your stay includes lodging, guided outings, evening programs, and gourmet meals featuring locally-sourced and homegrown ingredients. Camp Denali’s goal is to help you immerse yourself in Denali-- its sub-arctic ecology, geology, history, indigenous peoples and changing landscape.

Camp Denali operates on a fixed schedule with three night stays beginning on Fridays (departing on Mondays) and four night stays beginning on Mondays (departing on Fridays). Guests are welcome to stay longer than 4 nights as long as it aligns with our Monday/Friday arrivals and departures.
COVID-19 Vaccination Policy: Camp Denali will require all guests to be “Up to Date” (as defined by the CDC) with COVID-19 vaccination by the time of arrival. This includes the most recent booster for those who are eligible.

Rates: Rates are all-inclusive of accommodations, National Park entrance fee, all meals, lodging, naturalist-guided hiking, evening programs, and use of our canoes, bikes, fishing equipment and outdoor gear. Details are available at: campdenali.com/reservations

Reservations: To confirm a reservation, please contact Camp Denali directly by calling their office at 907-683-2290. Proof of membership will be required.

Discounted sessions with Scott Weidensaul:
- 3 nights: arrive on June 2, depart on June 5
- 4 nights: arrive on June 5, depart on June 9
- 7 nights: arrive on June 2, depart on June 9

Scott Weidensaul is the author of nearly 30 critically acclaimed books on natural history, including the Pulitzer Prize finalist "Living on the Wind" and his latest, the New York Times bestseller, "A World on the Wing." Scott is a contributing editor for Audubon and writes for other publications, including BWD and Living Bird. He is a Fellow of the American Ornithological Society.

Discounted sessions with David Sibley:
- 3 nights: arrive on June 9, depart on June 12
- 4 nights: arrive on June 12, depart on June 16
- 7 nights: arrive on June 9, depart on June 16