President's Report - Greg Miller
Since Los Angeles Annual Meeting (Fall 2017), outreach by ASLA Leadership has included numerous visits to chapters, student chapters, and attendance at meetings of allied professions.

Program and Operations Report - Nancy Somerville (Executive Vice President)
Purpose: To provide a summary of recent accomplishments across major program areas.
- ASLA Center - has been a huge success.
- Emerging Issue ASLA will be focusing on - Security Design
- Frameworks Institute Communications Research - Effort to "Reframe" the LA narrative
  Effort to identify how to most effectively communicate about landscape architecture and why it matters.
  Joint project of Presidents Council - ASLA, CLARB, LAF, CELA and LAAB.
- Chinatown Green Street - progress continues

Finance and Investments Report - Michael O'Brien and VP Tom Mroz
Overall - very positive situation

Membership Dues
Approved 4% ($15) increase of Full Member dues effective Jan. 1, 2019. $370 to $385.
No dues increase in 2020.

Luncheon Panel "Climate Change and Resilience"
Representatives of ASLA, AIA, APA, ASCE, NSPE
Vice Presidents elected -
Membership, Professional Practice, Finance

President Candidates Presentations:
David Cutter and Wendy Miller. Voting among general membership has begun.

Review of ASLA Mission, Vision, Values and Culture
Current were reviewed and suggestions made for improvements.

Presentation of 2018 Nominees for ASLA Honors and Voting

Public Policy Statement: Urban Growth and Development
Revised version reviewed and approved.

Federal and State Government Priorities
Determination process reviewed.
ASLA Federal and State Legislative Priorities Survey is open until May 31. All members should participate! Participation has been low.
https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/VVW5RRK

Use of ASLA logo by firms discussion
Input for consideration. Variety of opinions. No consensus.

BOT Diversity Training Session

Kickball game - CPC versus BOT. Won by BOT of course.

Philadelphia Annual Meeting - October 19-22, 2018
Registration has opened! 9 Meeting hotels all within walking distance (no shuttles).

Submitted by:
David Gorden, ASLA
Indiana Chapter Trustee
May 16, 2018