

First look at MoMA's Rain Room, part of Expo 1 (slide show)

In Rain Room, a new installation at MoMA, it's always pouring—unless you're trying to get wet. Then magically, right where you're standing, the showers stop.

By Lee Magill

Mon May 13 2013

Like 69 people like this. Sign Up to see what your friends like.

Tweet 11

+1 0

Photograph: Virginia Rollison

Rain Room by rAandom International at the Museum of Modern Art

Part of PS1 MoMA's new, environmentally focused show "Expo 1," Rain Room by rAandom International, which opened at MoMA on Friday, May 10, is bound to make a splash with kids. The immersive, interactive installation allows viewers to walk right into the rain—after a wait; be prepared to stand in line—which ends up stopping right over your head, even as you walk through it. The effect: You get to enjoy everything you love about rain without actually getting wet. Click through our slide show, above, for a peek at the inventively poetic work.

Rain Room will be on view at the Museum of Modern Art through July 28.

MAY CALENDAR

Events for kids by date

Americangirl.com for Events!

May, 2013 - June, 2013

Mon 20	Tue 21	Wed 22	Thu 23	Fri 24	Sat 25	Sun 26
--------	--------	--------	--------	--------	--------	--------

"Applied Design"
MoMA's newest exhibit explores the functionality o...

"A Year with..."
Close to 100 imaginative, carefully crafted works ...

"Gateway to..."
The newest exhibit at the Rubin keeps youngsters i...

4 more events »

Time Out Kids Newsletter

Sign up to keep tabs on NYC's best family offerings,