VIDEO INSTALLATION

Environment, Memory & Things @ Leila Philip, Garth Evans, Siobhan Landry
Funded by the CT. Commission of the Arts / National Endowment for the Arts.

This video installation is based on the book, Water Rising, (New Rivers, Press, University of Minnesota Moorehead, 2015) by Garth Evans and Leila Philip. The video interweaves poems from the book read by the Leila Philip, conversation with the authors of Water Rising and music by the composer, Shirish Korde. In addition the video includes photographs taken by the authors of their local landscape and images of each stage of three new watercolors as they evolve. It is a collaboration between writer, Leila Philip, sculptor, Garth Evans and video artist, Siobhan Landry. To View 2016- 2017 Exhibition Schedule see www.water-rising.com (Forthcoming 2017 – 2018 New Bedford Art Museum, Mass.; California College of Art, San Francisco)
