This month, the Town Hall Restoration Committee (THRC) would like to first and foremost thank all of our local business owners who have gone far above and beyond with generous contributions to the restoration project. In the past month alone they have collectively donated a total of $24,287.83, of which $16,832 is in the form of in-kind donations and $7,455 in cash donations.

Our deepest thanks to:

Also this month, Pizza Chef of Bradford hosted a spirited evening of Appalachian folk music with the Bradford Bog People. Guest songwriter and singer Doug Farrell, guest singer Monique Lamore, Beth Eldridge (fiddle) and Woody Pringle (banjo and mandolin) drew in quite a crowd. All proceeds from ticket sales will be used to benefit Town Hall restoration efforts. Thanks to the Bradford Bog People and everyone who came out for the evening. And thanks to the THRC

From the Editor

Change is upon us and we at the Bridge are gratified that new volunteers are coming forward to continue the fine tradition of maintaining our neighborhood paper. In July, the Bridge will be 25 years old and we hope to celebrate our silver anniversary in style. If you have any ideas or would like to see an older or favorite column, let us know. We’d appreciate your ideas.

We have some important dates in February that will help define our town’s immediate future. Please attend the Budget Meeting on Thursday, February 4 and the Bond Hearing on Monday, February 8. Once again, we will revisit the restoration of Town Hall at the Wednesday, March 9 Town Meeting. Please consider supporting the hard work and many years of volunteer efforts that have gone into the restoration project. An information session will be held on Saturday, February 20th, at 3pm at KRES (Kearsarge Regional Elementary School). Come have a look at the project details and costs and have your questions answered by the committee’s members.

We wish you all a happy Valentine’s Day!

Beth Rodd,
February Editor

Bradford Town Boards

Board of Selectmen

Primex Insurance was approved to carry the town’s workers comp., property liability, and unemployment insurance. Town Administrator Cheryl Behr was named as the authorized signature. The board voted to abate the $83.00 current use change tax for Bradford Fish & Game.

The contract with Cross Country Appraisal was signed.

Andrew Pinard reported that the anticipated budget increase for KRSD will be 2.06%. This does not include the teachers’ contract, which is still under negotiation.

The Building Inspector will be asked to check if proper permits are in place for excavation being conducted on Fairgrounds Road.

Selectmen will discuss the update of the Local Emergency Operations Center with Emergency Management Coordinator Bruce Edwards.

NH Cop Sync was authorized to provide the offices with software for emergency situations.

Minutes of all meetings are on file at the Town Office and online at bradfordnh.org.

Zoning Board of Adjustment

An application for a variance from the wetlands buffer setback requirements was received from Lynn Gross for property on Route 103. The Board held on January 14 and scheduled a public hearing for February 3. A public hearing was held on the application from Lauryn Morell, 73 Oakdale Rd, for a special exception to move the location of an intended house forward 10 feet to avoid ledge and minimize blasting. After reviewing the application and receiving no comments from the public, the Board voted to approve her request.

Planning Board

The board voted to hire Molly Hopkins-Small for the clerical position that had been advertised. Board members were asked to help recruit alternate members for the Planning Board. Anyone who might be interested in serving in this capacity, should contact Jim Bibbo, 938-2460 or another member of the board for more details about this important volunteer position.

Above: Winter has finally spread her beauty upon Bradford.
After seven years of having near zero interest rates, with the idea that the American economy is now strong enough to handle it, the Federal Reserve voted in December to raise the central bank's benchmark interest rate from a range of 0 percent to 0.25 percent to a range of 0.25 to 0.5 percent. The rate hike is a small one, but it will affect millions of Americans, including investors, savers and my focus, home buyers. While it is expected that this minor interest rate hike will result in it being more costly to borrow money to buy a house, that isn't necessarily the case. Numerous factors influence mortgage rates from where in the country your home is located to the state of the global economy and whether inflation is right around the corner. It is worth remembering that even if rates go up, it is still inexpensive to buy a house with the average 30-year fixed-rate mortgage hovering at 3.75%. If you bought a house in 2000, the average rate was around 8%, quite a difference. Does this mean you should rush out and buy a home? Small changes in interest rates do not generally make that much of a dollars-and-cents difference in the decision to buy and people should buy a home when it makes sense to do so. There are other factors home buyers should consider over interest rates:

Length of time you will stay in that home. On average it takes between four and seven years to break even on home, where you have enough appreciation where it can pay you back for the cost of the transaction and cost of ownership.

Job security. You do not want to buy a home and then discover you have to relocate for your job or even worse, end up unemployed and unable to make your payments. Lenders like to see two years of job history, though they can sometimes bend that rule if you stay in the same field.

Down payment. While there are still programs with 100% financing or 3 to 3.5% down, if you put less than 20% down you typically have to pay private mortgage insurance every month which could cost you more than a slightly higher interest rate. You want to have as much money saved as possible for the down payment and closing costs before deciding to purchase a home.

Emotional readiness. Not everyone should own a home. If you are not sure if you want to stay in a particular area or you hesitate to take on the responsibilities of home ownership that you can pass on to your landlord when renting, it may be best to continue renting.

Financial readiness. Here again it comes down to having good credit and a steady income. Not only do you need the funds to purchase the home, you need to pay property taxes and homeowner’s insurance and set aside funds for ongoing maintenance and utilities.

Educational Theater Collaborative

Since growing up in Bradford, Fran Page continued his passion for theatre, and received his BA in Theatre from PSU, and his MFA from Goddard College. Previous ETC roles include Marking the Moment (Babe Ruth), Cinderella (Herald) and Frindle (Ted Bell). Fran is a teaching lecturer in the Music, Theatre, and Dance Department at PSU. Tim Johnson is a musical theatre major at Rhode Island College in Providence.

The cast of Shrek, The Musical, included nearly 100 children and adults of all ages from the area. For many years, KAT’s productions took place at the Kearsarge Regional High School under the leadership of Trish Lindberg. The goal of ETC is to produce the highest quality theatre and integrated arts experiences possible through collaborations with the university, area schools, and the community.

To the Editor,

On behalf of the Fundraising Team, heartfelt thanks to the Bradford Bog People, guest songwriter and singer Doug Farrell and Monique Lamore for an enchanting evening of Appalachian folk music in a packed house to promote Bradford Town Hall restoration. Woody Pringle displayed mastery of banjo and mandolin, while Beth Eldridge performed brilliant fiddling and lyrical songs. Doug Farrell unveiled the restoration project’s theme song: “Handyman Special.” The music evoked the era of Town Hall’s builders who rode their ponies down from Bradford’s outback to enjoy it as they, like us, harnessed their optimism to the common good, rolled up their sleeves and got to work.

“With love in his heart and flow- ers in hand Johnny proposed to Sally AnnSally shivered as she said, “I’ll love you till the day I’m dead”Johnny got married in his one good suit…”

Last night’s lyrics reminded us that rural life was hard, never more so than in the winter. Neighbors banded together to hang onto cherished traditions and triumph over isolation and adversity, bridging divides through dance and song.

We commend John Gioldassis and the Pizza Chef Team for creating an atmosphere of conviviality built around savory pizza pies and accompaniments.

Our gratitude extends to the audience that shoveled its way out to a packed Pizza Chef, notably to all the fans who left the Pats to play on their own. We could not have asked for a more enjoyable evening. The artistry of the Bradford Bog People and their dedication to the community reminded us of why we love Bradford, and why we all need a renovated Town Hall, downstairs and upstairs.

Michele Halsted
Rural Heritage Connection of Bradford, Inc.

After 19+ years, Cheryl Behr, our talented Town Administrator, will be retiring in late February. The Town of Bradford thanks Cheryl for her guidance and tremendous understandings and handling of our multi-faceted Town requirements and individual residents’ needs!

The Board was advised of Cheryl’s intentions earlier last summer. We had been impressed with Karen Hambleton’s part time efforts for the Town and asked Cheryl to bring her up to speed on the needed requirements for the different times of the year. Believe us, activity in January … year end closings, the next year’s budget and preparation for Town Meeting; varies a great deal from semi-annual assessment reviews and keeping the beaches clean! Having Cheryl and Karen work together for an extended period of time truly helps with a smooth transition.

The position requires dedication, knowledge of the NH State regulations and understanding of the Selectmen’s intentions re how to run departments like the Police, Transfer Station, Road Crew, Administration, and Library. Additionally, the Administrator must investigate options on multiple subjects for Town & Board reviews: financing, employee policies, wage reviews, ongoing budget issues, Committee memberships … the list goes on … and on! “Attention to Detail” is the call of the day. Cheryl has done it well and helped a great deal in getting Karen comfortable with the needed time and effort for the various projects’ and Town’s needs. The Board feels fortunate to have such talent available for promotion from within!

Karen is a Town resident of 11 years with a son in our school system. She also has a daughter, Tara, who was married last summer. Karen’s background revolved around the financial operations of different companies, including 18 years with UNH and volunteer positions with the KAP preschool, Enfield Shaker Museum, the First Baptist Church and the Board of Directors of the BACC. Her background coupled with strong organization skills makes her promotion to Town Administrator

Library Lantern

by Meg Fearnley

Fall in love with a good book from your library this February. We have lots of books for all ages in fiction, mystery, non-fiction, and biography. If you don’t see the book you want, just ask! We are happy to recommend books or find that particular title you seek.

Planning ahead to March, join us for a full English tea on Sunday, March 6 at 2:30pm to celebrate the final episode of Downton Abbey. This fundraiser is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Limited tickets will be available at the library. Check with us for price and details in February. We encourage you to wear your best Downton outfits.

CHESS. The library is open on Presidents Day, and we will offer chess that night from 6:30 until 8:00pm.

BOOK DISCUSSION. We have not yet selected our February book by Bridge deadline. Check with the library or on our website brownmemoriallibrary.org for the next choice. We try to choose books that are not too long, not too new, and (do try, Meg) not too dark. Join us on Wednesday, February 17 at 7pm for the discussion. All are welcome.

Some of the new books added in January:
For adults
Fortune Smiles: stories / Adam Johnson
Anything For You / Kristan Higgins
Radiance / Catherynne M. Valente
Outline / Rachel Cusk
Fallen Land / Taylor Brown
Woman With a Blue Pencil / Gordon McAlpine
The Precious One / Marisa de los Santos
For children & teens
Listen, slowly / Thanhha Lai
This raging light / Estelle Laure
All The Bright Places / Jennifer Niven
The Only Child / Guojing

Happy Valentine’s Day, Bradford!

George and Marge Cilley, who fell in love at first waltz, still see all the possibilities for Bradford Town Hall.

Residents of Bradford,

State Primary Elections are quickly approaching. As I write this we have 1130 registered voters in the town of Bradford. The Town Clerk’s office would like to encourage every voter who is able to come down and vote on Election Day- or send in their absentee ballot! There are a lot of candidates to consider so please do your research and choose wisely.

In the words of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, “Nobody will ever deprive the American people of the right to vote except the American people themselves and the only way they could do this is by not voting.”

Good day and good luck!

Camila Devlin, Town Clerk/Tax Collector Town of Bradford

Barbara (Hayes) Willett, 89, died Dec. 21, 2015, at the Merrimack County Nursing Home in Boscawen. Born in Hollis on Oct. 14, 1926, Barbara graduated from Simonds Free High School in Warner and worked as a housekeeper most of her life.

She enjoyed crafts including making dolls, clowns and later quilts. The most joyous thing in her life was working in her yard or anyone else's. Barbara had lovely natural gardens and an almost manicured yard. She was known to go out in early morning, completely miss lunch and force herself in for dinner. She always liked a good wind storm so that she could go out and pick up sticks and branches in the yard. Barbara was quite reserved and felt at home in the solitude of the outdoors.

Barbara was predeceased by her husband, Leo Willett, and then her "chum," Ed Raymond. Barbara leaves behind her brother, Vernon Toppin of Addison, ME; a sister, Jeanette Couch of Sutton Mills; a son, Fred Willett of Port Charlotte, FL; a daughter, Trudy Willett of Bradford; grandchildren Jeremy Willett, Kristy Willett Schaeffer, Devin Willett, Travis Whitman and Justin Willett, and great-grandchildren, Andrew, Kenna, Zachary, Natalie, Grace, Dylan, Sawyer and Nathan. Richard L. “Dick” Dumais, age 77, of Boston and Sanibel, FL died Dec. 29, 2015. Born in Dorchester, MA in 1938, Dick is survived by his wife of 32 years, Jane, and two children, Rick Dumais and Lee Dumais. He was predeceased by his youngest son, Joseph ("Joey"). He leaves three stepdaughters and several grandchildren.

A graduate of Northeastern University, Dick spent many years working at Data Terminal Systems in Acton and Maynard, MA. A true believer in the Republican Party and conservative politics, he was a fierce patriot and was looking forward to the 2016 presidential election. He enjoyed rooting for the New England Patriots, joking with friends and family, traveling, and spending summers with Jane at their house in Wilmot, NH.

For many years, he and Jane lived on Sunset Hill in Bradford where he was actively involved with the town, serving on the Facilities Committee. A private burial was held at Wood-

The subscription price of The Bradford Bridge will be raised for 12 issues from $20 to $25 per year due to the cost of stamps and envelopes. The increase will be effective when you renew your annual subscription.
Alert to Advertisers

To ensure that your ad is printed as you (and The Bradford Bridge) wants it to appear, it must be submitted in “press quality” PDF format, at least 300 pixels per inch (ppi). The Bridge cannot be responsible for the reproduction of your ad if this format is not provided. Also, keep in mind that trying to fit too much text in a small ad can lead to less than satisfactory results. Firm deadline is the 20th of the month.

Your understanding and help in this matter is appreciated.

Out and About

A regular feature of the Bradford Bridge, Out and About, will post a picture of a place in the Bradford area with a hint of where it can be found. The places will be public and may be found near a town road. Your job is to get out and explore Bradford to find the place.

The winner of the January Out and About is Joe Torro who correctly identified the site saying, “I believe the site is the old Raymond House which sat up at the intersection of Main St and 114. It burned in 1897 and the owner rebuilt at the site of my place, actually transporting the huge granite foundation stones which make up my basement. There was a tavern on site called the Raymond Tavern up there and that’s where Lafayette stopped on his tour.” Thank you Joe. Who better to identify this site!! Here is the picture.

February’s mystery site is in southwestern Bradford on private property, but can be clearly seen from a town road.

When you know what and where it is, send an email to contact.us@bradford.bridge.com by February 20, 2016 with your name and contact info telling the location of the picture. The first sender of an email with the correct location will receive a congratulatory photo card of that place and their name will appear in Out and About in the next Bradford Bridge. Happy hunting everybody!!
Q: What do farmers give to their wives on Valentine’s Day?

A: Hogs and Kisses!

Bradford will be celebrating Read Across America Week Feb 15th -19th! This initiative began in 1998 to encourage people of all ages to get excited about reading. We encourage everyone to pick out a good book this week or come up with a fun reading challenge for the kids in your family!
