C.H. Robinson supports Women In Trucking Foundation to assist in Scholarship Awards to Women Pursuing Transportation Careers

Middleton, WI (January 21, 2021) – Women In Trucking (WIT) Foundation, a 501(c)3 non-profit affiliated with the Women In Trucking Association, is pleased to announce C.H. Robinson as a new Corporate Sponsor. C.H. Robinson’s recent contribution of $15,000 to the Women In Trucking Foundation will support the mission of the Foundation in forwarding the careers of women in transportation through educational scholarships and career development opportunities.

“We proudly support Women in Trucking and their mission to support women on their path to growth and development. C.H. Robinson has a responsibility to create a community and industry where we all can thrive. And through this collaboration, we can help to remove barriers and create opportunities,” said Angie Freeman, C.H. Robinson Chief Human Resources and ESG Officer.

Since 2013, the Women In Trucking Foundation has awarded over $100,000 in scholarships to over 100 recipients focused on advancing their careers in CLD driving, technicians, safety and leadership.

“We greatly appreciate C.H. Robinson’s generous gift to the Women In Trucking Foundation as it will provide women with the ability to seek careers in transportation or expand their knowledge base within our industry,” said WIT Foundation Chair Gail Wearsch, Vice President of Fleet Solutions, Channel Partner Programs, at TravelCenters of America. “Corporate Sponsors like C.H. Robinson are essential in realizing our mission to strengthen the legacy of education and provide much needed resources to women in the trucking industry..” Wearsch added.

The Women In Trucking Foundation is a 501c3 nonprofit organization affiliated with the nonprofit 501c6 trade organization Women In Trucking Association, Inc., and is responsible for raising funds for educational scholarships and encouraging the employment of women in the trucking industry.
