

“Worry. Don’t Be Happy.”

Feeling the Weight and Conviction of Sin

Hosea 9:1-17

“There are two great lessons which every man must learn, and learn by experience, before he can be a Christian. First, he must learn that sin is an exceeding great and evil thing; and he must learn also that the blood of Christ is an exceedingly precious thing, and is able to save unto the uttermost them that come unto it.”

Charles Spurgeon

When we have a view of sin that is small, the wrath of God seems a barbarous doctrine. But, when able to truly see and perceive the badness of our sin, in comparison to God’s holiness and goodness, we quickly see how great is our corruption and are made to feel the weight of our sinfulness. This is indispensable to a real understanding of the Christian faith.

C.S. Lewis

“We don’t feel the weight of our sin because of: our sin! If we saw with deep clarity just how insidious and pervasive and revolting sin is —we would know that we are worthy of intense judgment of divine proportion! But, just as we can hardly fathom the divine ferocity awaiting those apart from Christ, it is equally true that we can hardly fathom the divine tenderness already resting on those who are in Christ.

Hosea 9:1-4,7

1 Do not rejoice, Israel; do not be jubilant like the other nations. For you have been unfaithful to your God; you love the wages of a prostitute at every threshing floor.

2 Threshing floors and winepresses will not feed the people; the new wine will fail them.

3 They will not remain in the Lord's land; Ephraim will return to Egypt and eat unclean food in Assyria.

4 They will not pour out wine offerings to the Lord, nor will their sacrifices please him.

Such sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners; all who eat them will be unclean.

This food will be for themselves; it will not come into the temple of the Lord.

5 What will you do on the day of your appointed festivals, on the feast days of the Lord?

6 Even if they escape from destruction, Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them. Their treasures of silver will be taken over by briars, and thorns will overrun their tents.

7 The days of punishment are coming, the days of reckoning are at hand. Let Israel know this.

Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired person a maniac.

8 The prophet, along with my God, is the watchman over Ephraim, yet snares await him on all his paths, and hostility in the house of his God.

9 They have sunk deep into corruption, as in the days of Gibeah. God will remember their wickedness and punish them for their sins.

10 "When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert; when I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing the early fruit on the fig tree. But when they came to Baal Peor, they consecrated themselves to that shameful idol and became as vile as the thing they loved.

11 Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird— no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.

12 Even if they rear children, I will bereave them of every one. Woe to them when I turn away from them!

13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place. But Ephraim will bring out their children to the slayer."

14 Give them, Lord— what will you give them? Give them wombs that miscarry and breasts that are dry.

15 "Because of all their wickedness in Gilgal, I hated them there. Because of their sinful deeds, I will drive them out of my house. I will no longer love them; all their leaders are rebellious.

16 Ephraim is blighted, their root is withered, they yield no fruit. Even if they bear children, I will slay their cherished offspring."

17 My God will reject them because they have not obeyed him; they will be wanderers among the nations.

Isaiah 6:5

"Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty."

Psalms 32:3-5

3 When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

4 For day and night your hand was heavy on me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer.

5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord."

And you forgave the guilt of my sin!

Romans 7:24-25

"O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord"
